Section 1. Place of Meeting. Stockholders' meetings shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place, either within or without the State of Connecticut, as shall be designated in the notice of meeting.

Section 2. Annual Meeting; Business at Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held in each year at the place, on the date and at the hour designated in the call therefor. At such meeting, the stockholders shall elect the Board of Directors and shall transact such other business as shall properly be brought before them. At an annual meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. To be properly brought before an annual meeting, business must be (a) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, (b) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (c) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder.

For business to properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the business must be an appropriate matter to be acted on by the stockholders at an annual meeting and the stockholder must have given proper and timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on a day which is not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting: (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of the stockholder proposing such business, (c) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder and (d) any material interest of the stockholder in such business. The presiding officer of an annual meeting shall determine whether such proposal is or is not an appropriate matter to be acted on by the stockholders at such annual meeting, and, if the facts warrant that a matter of business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Article II, Section 2, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be acted on at the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Subject to Subparagraph 5 of Paragraph B of Article SEVENTH of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, special meetings of stockholders of the Corporation may be called by the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by the concurring vote of Directors holding a majority of the total number of directorships (as defined in Article IV, Section 1 of these Bylaws) and shall be called upon the written request of the stockholders who hold at least thirty-five percent (35%) of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at such special meeting. The general purpose or purposes for which a special meeting is called shall be stated in the notice thereof, and no other business shall be transacted at such meeting. No proposal may be brought before a special meeting unless it is directly related to the business specified in the notice of such meeting and it is properly brought before such meeting. To be properly brought before a special meeting, a proposal must be (a) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, (b) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or (c) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder.

For a proposal to be properly brought by a stockholder before a special meeting (other than nominations for election of Directors, which shall be governed by Article II, Section 7 of these Bylaws), the stockholder must have given proper and timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first mailed to stockholders. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to such proposal the stockholder proposes to bring before a special meeting: (a) a brief description of the matter desired to be brought before the special meeting and the reasons why such proposal is directly related to the business contained in the notice of meeting; (b) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of the stockholder proposing such matter; (c) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder; and (d) any material interest of the stockholder in the proposal. The presiding officer of a special meeting shall determine whether such proposal is or is not directly related to the business of the meeting as stated in the notice thereof, and, if the facts warrant that such proposal was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Article II, Section 3, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and any such proposal not properly brought before the meeting shall not be acted on at the meeting.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting. Written notice of the date, time and place of each annual meeting and any special meeting, and in case of a special meeting, the general purpose or purposes for such meeting, shall be mailed or delivered, at least ten (10) but not more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of such meeting, to each stockholder entitled to vote at such a meeting at his residence or usual place of business, as shown on the records of the Corporation, provided that any one or more of such stockholders, as to himself or themselves, may waive such notice in writing or by attendance without protest at such meeting.

Section 5. Quorum. The holders of a majority of the shares of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote at a meeting, present either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting of the stockholders. If a quorum be not present at such meeting, the stockholders present in person or by proxy may adjourn to such future time as shall be agreed upon by them, and notice of such adjournment shall be given to the stockholders not present or represented at the meeting.

Section 6. Stockholders' Action Without Meeting. Any action which, under any provision of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, may be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without such a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken or to be taken, is signed severally or collectively by all of the persons who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting or by their duly authorized attorneys. The Secretary of the Corporation shall file such consent or consents with the minutes of the stockholders' meetings.

Section 7. Advance Notice of Nominations. No person shall be eligible for election as a Director at any annual or special meeting of stockholders unless such person was nominated by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or by any stockholder of the Corporation entitled to vote for the election of Directors at the meeting who complies with the following procedures. A nomination by a stockholder shall be made only if such stockholder has given proper and timely notice in writing of such stockholder's intent to make such nomination to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Secretary of the Corporation at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, the close of business on a day which is not less than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting, and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders called for election of Directors, the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the date on which notice of such meeting is first mailed to stockholders. Each such notice shall set forth: (a) the name and address of the person or persons to be nominated; (b) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's books, of the stockholder making such nomination; (c) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder; (d) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; (e) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholders and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; (f) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by the stockholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (g) the consent of each nominee to serve as a Director of the Corporation if so elected. The presiding officer of the meeting shall determine, if the facts warrant that such nomination was not made in accordance with the provisions of this Article II, Section 7, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and any nominations not properly made shall be disregarded.

uncertificated, upon proper instructions from the holder thereof, in each case with such proof of the authenticity of signature as the Corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require.
