"REPORT OF ORGANIZATIONAL ACTIONS AFFECTING BASIS OF SECURITIES"

Line	Description	Response
Part II, Item 14	Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action.	Dover Corporation ("Dover") distributed 85,019,159 shares of common stock of Knowles Corporation ("Knowles") on February 28, 2014 to holders of record of Dover common stock (the "Distribution"). The date of record was 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on February 19, 2014. In the Distribution, holders of Dover common stock received one (1) share of Knowles common stock for every two (2) shares of Dover common stock held. Fractional shares that Dover shareholders would otherwise have been entitled to receive will be aggregated and sold in the public market by the distribution agent. The aggregate net cash proceeds of these sales will be distributed pro rata (based on the fractional share such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive) to those stockholders who would otherwise have been entitled to receive fractional shares. As a result of the Distribution, Knowles became an independent, publicly-traded company.
Part II, Item 15	Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis.	Pursuant to section 358 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), each shareholder of Dover will need to allocate his/her tax basis in Dover shares immediately before the Distribution between shares of Dover common stock and the shares of Knowles common stock received in the Distribution.

Part II, Item 16	Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates.	For U.S. federal tax purposes, the allocation of tax basis between shares of Dover common stock and Knowles common stock is based on the fair market value (FMV) at the time of the Distribution. There are many potential ways to determine the FMV of Dover common stock and Knowles common stock at the time of the Distribution. One potential approach is based on the midpoint of the highest and lowest quoted selling prices on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") per share of Dover common stock and share of Knowles common stock (US $78.73 and US $31.04, respectively) on March 3, 2014, which was the first day shares of Dover common stock and shares of Knowles common stock traded regularly on the NYSE following the Distribution. Based on this approach, the tax basis in the Dover shares immediately prior to the Distribution would be allocated 83.53% to Dover shares and 16.47% to Knowles shares immediately following the Distribution, calculated as follows: <table border="1" data-bbox="619 824 1497 1086"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th style="text-align: center;">Midpoint Price</th> <th style="text-align: center;">Exchange Ratio (ER)</th> <th style="text-align: center;">Divided by ER</th> <th style="text-align: center;">Allocation Ratio</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Dover</td> <td style="text-align: center;">$78.73</td> <td style="text-align: center;">1</td> <td style="text-align: center;">$78.73</td> <td style="text-align: center;">83.53%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Knowles</td> <td style="text-align: center;">$31.04</td> <td style="text-align: center;">2</td> <td style="text-align: center;">$15.52 $94.25</td> <td style="text-align: center;">16.47% 100.00%</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Please note that some brokerage houses might not use the information provided in this document, and the information is only provided as an example of one potential approach. There are various ways in which brokerage houses may calculate the tax basis, including but not limited to March 3, 2014 opening or closing prices. Please contact your individual brokerage house to determine which calculation they may have used and contact your own tax advisor for additional information and clarification.		Midpoint Price	Exchange Ratio (ER)	Divided by ER	Allocation Ratio	Dover	$78.73	1	$78.73	83.53%	Knowles	$31.04	2	$15.52 $94.25	16.47% 100.00%

Part II, Item 17	List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based.	For U.S. federal tax purposes, the Distribution is a tax-free reorganization under sections 368(a)(1)(D) and 355 of the Code. Pursuant to section 355(a) of the Code, no gain or loss will be recognized by Dover stockholders as a result of the Distribution. A Dover shareholder's aggregate tax basis in Dover shares immediately prior to the Distribution is allocated between Dover shares and Knowles shares received in the Distribution under section 358(b)(2) and (c) of the Code. Under section 1223(1) of the Code, the holding period of a Dover stockholder in Knowles stock received in the Distribution will include the holding period of the pre-distribution Dover stock with respect to which the distribution of the Knowles stock was made. Under sections 1001 and 1221 of the Code, in general, the receipt by Dover stockholders of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Knowles will be treated as if the fractional share had been distributed to the Dover stockholder in the distribution and then had been disposed of by such stockholder (in a sale or exchange) for the amount of such cash and the corresponding gain, if any, would be subject to tax.
Part II, Item 18	Can any resulting loss be recognized?	The treatment of cash received in lieu of fractional shares (as described in Part II, Item 17 above) by a Dover shareholder could result in a loss that generally, may be recognized. Other than with respect to treatment of fractional shares, shareholders of Dover common stock will not recognize gain or loss upon their receipt of Knowles common stock in the Distribution.
Part II, Item 19	Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year.	The Distribution of Knowles common stock occurred in calendar year 2014.
