II. Membership

The Committee shall be comprised of at least three directors, two of whom must meet the independence requirements of the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, as well as the Director Independence Standards set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and one of whom must be the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), if the CEO is also a director. The members of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and may be replaced at any time by majority vote of the independent directors then in office. The Board shall designate a Committee Chair.

III. Meetings and Procedures

The Committee shall meet on an as needed basis. The Committee Chair or a majority of the Committee members may call a special meeting of the Committee. Meetings may be held in-person, by telephone or by video or web conference.

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which shall be presented to and filed with the minutes of the Board. The Committee shall report to the Board with respect to its activities and decisions. IV. Responsibilities and Duties

Subject to the limitations set forth in the FBCA, the Committee shall function on behalf of the Board during intervals between Board meetings, as necessary, and shall perform such other tasks as are properly delegated by the Board from time to time. The Committee shall review its Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

V. Limitations

While members of the Committee have the responsibilities and duties set forth in this Charter, nothing in this Charter is intended to create, or should be construed as creating, any responsibility or liability of the members of the Committee, except to the extent otherwise provided under applicable federal or state law.
