Terrence Hahn Joins Regal Board of Directors

6/15/2018

BELOIT, Wis., June 15, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Regal Beloit Corporation (NYSE: RBC) announced today that Mr. Terrence S. Hahn has joined the Company's Board of Directors. His initial term on the board will continue until the 2019 annual shareholders meeting. Additionally, the Company announced an increase in the size of the board from ten to eleven directors.

Mr. Hahn has most recently served as an Officer of Honeywell International, Inc. in the role of President and Chief Executive Officer of Honeywell Home and Building Technologies since 2016 and, after the public announcement in 2017 to spin the Homes and Distribution businesses, has supported the transition.

Before assuming that role, he served with Honeywell as President & Chief Executive Officer, Transportation Systems since 2013 based in Switzerland, and Vice President & General Manager, Performance Materials & Technologies, Fluorine Products since 2007. Prior to joining Honeywell, Mr. Hahn served in key business, operation and technology leadership roles with Air Products & Chemicals, Inc. from 1988-2007 with positions based in Taiwan, Malaysia and Canada. Mr. Hahn holds an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and MEng and BS degrees in Materials Science & Engineering from Lehigh University.

"We are extremely pleased to have Terrence join the Regal board. His integrated knowledge of software and hardware technology, his global leadership experience and his background in manufacturing will serve us well as we execute our strategy to grow through innovation," stated Mark Gliebe, Regal's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.
