

VAPOTHERM, INC.
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. Purpose. The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Vapotherm, Inc. (the “Company”) in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the general oversight of the compensation and benefits of the Company’s executive officers, employees and directors and administering the Company’s executive officer incentive compensation and equity-based compensation plans. The Committee reports to the Board. The Committee will assist the Board in fulfilling these responsibilities primarily by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section 4 of this Charter. In order to fulfill its responsibilities under this Charter, the Committee members shall, within the scope of their duties, have unrestricted access to Company personnel and documents and may consider information provided by the Company’s management, as appropriate.

2. Composition of the Committee. The Committee shall consist of at least two directors, appointed to the Committee by the Board at the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, one of whom shall be appointed as Chairperson of the Committee. If a Chairperson is not so appointed, the members of the Committee may elect a Chairperson by majority vote of the full Committee membership. Committee members may be removed by the Board in its discretion. Unless otherwise permitted by applicable phase-in rules and exemptions, each member of the Committee shall satisfy the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”). In determining the independence of any director who will serve on the Committee, the Board will consider all factors specifically relevant to determining whether a director has a relationship with the Company that is material to that director’s ability to be independent from management in connection with the duties of a Committee member, including, but not limited to: (A) the source of compensation of such director, including any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee paid by the Company to such director and (B) whether such director is affiliated with the Company, a subsidiary of the Company or an affiliate of a subsidiary of the Company. In addition, each member of the Committee should generally qualify as a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 (“Rule 16b-3”) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). In the event the Board determines that a director who does not qualify as a “non-employee director” should nevertheless serve on the Committee, appropriate arrangements shall be made for a sub-committee of the Committee to act on behalf of the Committee to the extent necessary to satisfy any applicable requirements of Rule 16b-3.

3. Meetings of the Committee. The Committee shall hold regularly scheduled meetings and such special meetings it deems to be necessary, at which a Secretary, designated by the Committee members, shall keep minutes. The Committee shall meet in executive session at least on an annual basis. The Committee shall report regularly regarding its activities and actions to the Board.

4. Responsibilities and Powers of the Committee. The Committee has direct responsibility and power to perform the following duties:

- Review and establish the Company’s overall executive officer compensation and benefits philosophy.
- Review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and the executive officers of the Company (as determined under the Exchange Act together with all employees who are “insiders” subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act) (collectively, the “Executive Officers”), evaluate the performance of the CEO and the other Executive Officers in light of those goals and objectives and, either as a committee or together with the other independent directors (as directed by the Board), determine and approve, or recommend to the Board for approval, the compensation levels for the CEO and other Executive Officers based on this evaluation, with the deliberations and voting on the CEO’s compensation to be conducted without the CEO present.

- Make recommendations to the Board about the compensation program of the non-employee directors.
- Review and administer the Company’s equity-based compensation plans, executive officer incentive compensation plans and deferred compensation plans and make recommendations to the Board about amendments to such plans (unless the authority to amend such plans has been granted to the Committee under the terms of such plans) and the adoption of any new equity-based compensation, executive officer incentive and deferred compensation plans.
- Review, consider and select, to the extent determined to be advisable, a peer group of companies for purposes of benchmarking and analysis of compensation for the CEO, Executive Officers and non-employee directors.
- Recommend to the Board any ownership guidelines for the CEO, Executive Officers, other senior employees and non-employee directors, and periodically assess these guidelines and recommend revisions as appropriate.
- Review and discuss with management the Company's Compensation Discussion & Analysis (the “CD&A”) and recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and its annual proxy statement in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission proxy and disclosure rules and prepare the compensation committee report on executive compensation for inclusion therein.
- Review and approve all Executive Officer employment contracts and other compensatory, severance and change-in-control arrangements for current and former Executive Officers.
- Establish and review periodically policies and procedures with respect to perquisites.
- Review the Company’s incentive compensation policies, practices and arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation and evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk.

- Oversee and periodically review the Company's culture and policies and strategies related to human capital management.
- Review and make recommendations to the Board regarding all executive compensation related proposals and review the results of advisory stockholder votes on executive compensation and consider whether to recommend adjustments to the Company's executive compensation policies and practices as a result of such votes and other stockholder input on executive compensation matters.
- Review and assess the adequacy of this Charter and submit any changes to the Board for approval on an annual basis.
- Maintain minutes of Committee meetings and report its actions and any recommendations to the Board on a periodic basis.
- Annually perform, or participate in, an evaluation of the performance of the Committee against the requirements of this Charter, the results of which shall be presented to the Board.

5. Actions of the Committee. In order to fulfill its role, the Committee shall be entitled to act in the following manner, to the fullest extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law and in each case in accordance with the Company's Ninth Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws (as each may be amended, restated or amended and restated):

- Action may be taken by the Committee upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members, provided that a quorum is present at the time such action is taken.
- Any two members or the Chairman of the Committee may call a meeting of the Committee upon due notice to each other member in the manner specified in Section 2.4 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company.
- A majority of the total number of Committee members then serving on the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of the Committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the Committee provided that such alternate members satisfy all applicable criteria for membership on the Committee. In the absence or upon the disqualification of a member of the Committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he, she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member, provided that such other member satisfies all applicable criteria for membership on the Committee.
- No action of the Committee shall be void or deemed to be without authority solely because of a failure of any member to meet the qualification requirements set forth in this Charter.

- Action may be taken by the Committee without a meeting if all of the members of the Committee indicate their approval thereof in writing or by electronic transmission.
- The Committee shall have the authority to delegate to subcommittees, consisting of one or more members of the Committee, any of the responsibilities of the full Committee and to officers of the Company such responsibilities of the full Committee as may be permitted by applicable laws, rules or regulations in accordance with NYSE rules.
- The Committee shall have the authority to delegate to the CEO and/or the Executive Officers the determination of compensation under approved compensation programs, except that compensation actions affecting the CEO or the Executive Officers may not be delegated.

6. Authority and Resources of the Committee. The Committee has the authority, in its sole discretion, to appoint, retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, which includes the sole authority and direct responsibility to approve such compensation consultant's or other adviser's fees and other retention terms, to oversee the work of and to terminate such compensation consultant or other adviser, and the authority and responsibility to pay from funds of the Company reasonable compensation to such compensation consultant or other adviser retained by the Committee. Such funding will be provided by the Company and determined by the Committee. Before selecting or obtaining the advice of a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser (other than in-house legal counsel), the Committee shall consider all factors relevant to the independence of such consultant, counsel or other adviser from management, including the factors set forth in NYSE rules then in effect and any other applicable laws, rules or regulations.

7. Reliance. To the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, each member of the Committee is entitled to rely in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Committee by any of the Company's officers, employees or committees, the compensation consultant or any other person as to matters the member reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company.
