

Forward-Looking Statements and Non-GAAP Measures

Certain of the statements included in this presentation, including those relating to Prudential Financial, Inc.'s and its subsidiaries' financial strength and flexibility, long-term growth prospects and the ability to generate long-term value for stakeholders, ability to manage risk associated with equity market decline, pandemic insurance shock, interest rate shock, credit shock or currency shock, and capital allocation strategy (including the payment of dividends, acquisitions, and repurchase of shares), constitute forward looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "expects," "believes," "anticipates," "includes," "plans," "assumes," "estimates," "projects," "intends," "should," "will," "shall," or variations of such words are generally part of forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are made based on management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects upon Prudential Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries. Prudential Financial, Inc.'s actual results may differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements. Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements can be found in the "Risk Factors" and "Forward-Looking Statements" sections included in Prudential Financial, Inc.'s Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Our financial strength and flexibility, long-term growth prospects and the ability to generate long-term value for stakeholders, ability to manage risk associated with equity market decline, pandemic insurance shock, interest rate shock, credit shock or currency shock, and capital allocation strategy (including the payment of dividends, acquisitions, and repurchase of shares) are subject to the risk that we will be unable to execute our strategy because of economic, market, or competitive conditions or other factors, including the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Prudential Financial, Inc. does not undertake to update any particular forward-looking statement included in this presentation.

This presentation includes references to adjusted operating income, adjusted book value, and adjusted operating return on equity, which is based on adjusted operating income and adjusted book value are not calculated based on accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). For reconciliations of adjusted operating income, adjusted book value, and adjusted operating return on equity to the comparable GAAP measures, please refer to the Appendix.

Strong Investment Performance Across Attractive Asset Classes Leads to Significant Organic Growth

Successful History with 16 out of 17 Years of Positive Third-Party Net Flows ($ billions)

⁽²⁾ PGIM calculations as of December 31, 2019. Past performance is not a guarantee or reliable indicator of future results. All investments involve risk, including the possible loss of capital. Performance is defined as outperformance (gross of fees) relative to each individual strategy's respective benchmark(s).
