

MAXAR TECHNOLOGIES INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

(Effective as of January 1, 2019)

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is to identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Maxar Technologies Inc. (the “Company”) consistent with criteria approved by the Board, to recommend that the Board select the director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders, to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines (the “Corporate Governance Guidelines”) and to oversee the evaluation of the Board and management.

II. Composition

The Committee must consist of at least two directors, each of whom must satisfy the independence requirements of applicable securities laws and the applicable rules of any stock exchange upon which the Company’s securities are listed. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee has sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve such search firm’s fees and other retention terms. The Committee has the authority to retain any other advisors that the Committee believes to be desirable and appropriate and has the authority to approve related fees and retention terms.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, and the Company's bylaws.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

1. Director Nominees. The Committee will identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board and ensure that the Board has the requisite skills and expertise and that its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds. The Committee will also recommend to the Board the nominees for election to the Board at the next annual meeting of shareholders.

2. Criteria for Selecting Directors. The criteria to be used by the Committee in recommending directors and by the Board in nominating directors are as set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

3. Board Committee Structure and Membership. The Committee will annually review the Board committee structure and recommend to the Board for its approval directors to serve as members of each committee.

4. Evaluate Board Size. The Committee will annually review the composition and size of the Board.

5. Director Independence. The Committee will verify that directors satisfy the independence requirements of applicable securities laws and the applicable rules of any stock exchange upon which the Company's securities are listed on an annual basis.

6. Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will, from time to time as it deems appropriate, review and reassess the adequacy of such Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

7. Code of Ethics. The Committee will develop a written code of business conduct and ethics ("Code of Ethics") applicable to directors, officers and employees, for Board approval. The Committee will consider, and discuss with management and the independent auditor, the Company's Code of Ethics and the procedures in place to enforce the Code of Ethics. The Committee will consider and discuss and, as appropriate, grant requested waivers from the Code of Ethics brought to the attention of the Committee, though the Committee may defer any decision with respect to any waiver to the Board.

8. Board and Committee Evaluations. The Committee will oversee the annual self-evaluations of the Board and the Board committees.

9. Other Corporate Governance Matters. The Committee may make recommendations to the Board regarding governance matters, including, but not limited to, the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws, and the charters of the Company's other committees.

10. Reports to the Board of Directors. The Committee must report regularly to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee.

11. Committee Self-Evaluation. The Committee must at least annually perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

12. Review of this Charter. The Committee must annually review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

V. Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee has the authority to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.
