Related Person Transaction Policy and Procedures

POLICY

Amneal Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) recognizes that related person transactions present a heightened risk of conflicts of interest (or the perception thereof) and therefore the Company has adopted this policy pursuant to which Related Person Transactions (as defined below), other than those transactions covered by the Company’s Conflicts Committee Charter (the “Conflicts Committee Charter”), shall be subject to approval or ratification in accordance with the procedures set forth in this policy.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the Conflicts Committee Charter and capitalized terms used in this policy but not otherwise defined have the meanings given to such terms in the Conflicts Committee Charter. Notwithstanding any provision of this policy, the Company’s Conflicts Committee shall have the authority and responsibility for reviewing and approving any Related Party Transaction that involves aggregate amounts above $2,500,000, measured by payments (together with all substantially related payments) to or from the Company Group, or is otherwise material (with materiality defined in a manner consistent with the Company’s SEC disclosure requirements) to the Company Group, taken as a whole, in any non-monetary respect.

Questions regarding this policy should be directed to the Company’s General Counsel.

For the purposes of this policy, a “Related Person Transaction” is a material transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which the Company (including any of its subsidiaries) was, is or will be a participant and in which any Related Person (as defined below) had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest. A transaction involving an amount exceeding $120,000 is presumed to be a “material transaction,” though transactions involving lower amounts may be material based on the facts and circumstances. A “direct or indirect material interest” of a Related Person may arise by virtue of Control (as defined below) or significant influence of the Related Person to the transaction or by direct or indirect pecuniary interest of the Related Person in the transaction.

PROCEDURES

Audit Committee Approval

The Audit Committee of the Board of Director of the Company (the “Committee”) shall review the relevant facts and circumstances of each Related Person Transaction (other than to the extent authority and responsibility for the review and approval of any transaction has been delegated to the Company’s Conflicts Committee, as described above, and other than pre-approved transactions, as described below) and either approve or disapprove the Related Person Transaction. Such review shall include if the transaction is on terms comparable to those that could be obtained in arm's length dealings with an unrelated third party, the extent of the Related Person's interest in the transaction, and shall also take into account the conflicts of interest and corporate opportunity provisions of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code"). Any Related Person Transaction shall be consummated and shall continue only if the Committee has approved or ratified such transaction in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this Policy.

Management shall present to the Committee each proposed Related Person Transaction, including all relevant facts and circumstances relating thereto and shall update the Committee as to any material changes to any approved or ratified Related Person Transaction and shall provide a status report of all then current Related Person Transactions at least annually at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Committee or more frequently as needed.

No director may participate in approval of a Related Person Transaction for which he or she is a Related Person.

Pre-Approved Transactions

The Committee has reviewed and pre-approved each of the following types of Related Person Transactions, which shall be deemed to be approved or ratified, as applicable, under this policy:

1. Compensation
  - (a) to an executive officer or director of the Company if the compensation is required to be reported in the Company's proxy statement pursuant to Item 402 of Regulation S-K; or
  - (b) to an executive officer of the Company who is not an Immediate Family Member (as defined below) of another Related Person, if such compensation would have been required to be reported under Item 402 as compensation earned for services to the Company if the executive was a "named executive officer" in the proxy statement and such compensation has been approved, or recommended to the Company's Board of Directors for approval, by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.
2. Transactions that are in the Company's ordinary course of business and where the interest of the Related Person arises only
  - (a) from the Related Person's position solely as a director of another corporation or organization that is a party to the transaction; or
  - (b) from the direct or indirect ownership by such Related Person and all other Related Persons, in the aggregate, of less than a 5% equity interest in another person (other than a partnership) which is a party to the transaction; or

- (c) from both such positions described in (a) and such ownership described in (b); or
  - (d) from the Related Person's position as a limited partner in a partnership in which the Related Person and all other Related Persons, in the aggregate, have an interest of less than 5%, and the Related Person is not a general partner of and does not have another position in the partnership.
3. Transactions that are in the Company's ordinary course of business and where the interest of the Related Person arises solely from the ownership of a class of equity securities in the Company and all holders of such class of equity securities of the Company will receive the same benefit on a pro rata basis.
  4. Transactions where the rates or charges involved in the transactions are determined by competitive bids.

Disclosure

All Related Person Transactions are to be disclosed in the Company's applicable filings and financial statements as required by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and related rules, and the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 850, "Related Party Disclosures". Furthermore, any material Related Person Transaction shall be disclosed to the full Board of Directors.

Other Agreements

Management shall assure that all Related Person Transactions are not in violation of and are approved in accordance with any requirements of the Company's financing or other material agreements.

Interpretation

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Policy shall be interpreted in such a manner as to comply with Item 404 of Regulation S-K and FASB Accounting Standards Codification Topic 850. In the event that a Related Person Transaction would constitute a conflict of interest or a corporate opportunity under the Code, the provisions of the Code also shall apply to such Related Person Transaction. Any such Related Person Transaction may not be approved hereunder unless it is also approved in accordance with the provisions of the Code and disclosed to the public to the extent required by law or the rules of the principal market on which the Company's common stock is traded.
