VoIP Provider 8x8, Inc. Will Offer Packet8 Subscribers Digital Courier Service from YouSendIt

Service allows users to send, receive and track large files from their computers using YouSendIt's convenient, secure Web service

SANTA CLARA, Calif. and MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif., June 28 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- 8x8, Inc. (Nasdaq: EGHT), provider of Packet8 (http://www.packet8.net) residential, business and video voice-over-Internet-protocol (VoIP) phone services, joined with YouSendIt, Inc., the trusted global leader in digital content delivery, today in announcing a new digital courier service for Packet8 subscribers.

Packet8 Dispatch, powered by YouSendIt, allows users to easily upload multiple files as large as 2GB each to multiple recipients, on-demand. Recipients receive an e-mail notification with a link to securely download the files.

"We are pleased to offer Packet8 subscribers, particularly our Virtual Office business customers, this valuable add on service that eliminates the frustration of current e-mail attachment limitations," said 8x8 Vice President of Marketing and Sales Huw Rees. "With Packet8 Dispatch, our customers have an efficient alternative to e-mail attachments that bounce back when they are too large for recipient systems, and a replacement for expensive overnight shipments of data on CDs."

"Tens of thousands of businesses across the globe use the YouSendIt service every day to deliver graphic designs, video, photos, engineering designs and other data to customers and partners in just minutes," said Ivan Koon, CEO of YouSendIt. "We are delighted to offer this assured and secure digital content delivery service to Packet8 VoIP customers."

8x8 and YouSendIt are offering two levels of online delivery service. The first, a free Lite version, offers free transfers of files as large as 100MB with a download bandwidth limit of 1GB each month. The second option, available free for a 45 day trial, allows file transfers as large as 2GB per file and can be downloaded by as many as 200 recipients, with a 200GB download bandwidth limit per month. After the 45 day trial period, Packet8 subscribers may continue the service paid either monthly, upfront on an annual basis or revert to the free Lite package.
