

SS&C Announces Two Senior Appointments

Industry Veterans to Enhance SS&C's Management Team

WINDSOR, CT – October 3, 2008 — SS&C Technologies, Inc. (www.ssctech.com), a global provider of financial services software and outsourcing solutions, today announced two senior level appointments.

Sean Egan has been appointed senior vice president, real estate. During an accounting career at KPMG LLP, Mr. Egan worked in the firm's Hartford, New York and Boston offices. Mr. Egan's most recent role was as Audit Partner for KPMG's Real Estate Practice in New York and New England. Mr. Egan will be based at the company's headquarters in Windsor, Connecticut, and will focus on developing profitable growth strategies in SS&C's SKYLINE™, SamTrak™ and LMS™ product areas.

ING Investment Management executive Doug Benedetto has been appointed vice president, strategic accounts. Mr. Benedetto, most recently the head of the Institutional Relationship Management Group at ING, will be located in Windsor, Connecticut. Mr. Benedetto was instrumental in launching ING's relationship management group and has a long track record of sales leadership, management and proven business development. In his new role at SS&C, Mr. Benedetto will work closely with SS&C largest clients to ensure all appropriate resources are at their disposal.

"We continue to seek solid expertise to ensure we have the industry's strongest leadership team," said Bill Stone, chairman and chief executive officer, SS&C Technologies, Inc. "Sean and Doug bring more than two decades of management experience and outstanding track records in meeting customers' needs."
