

Grupo Vidanta Selects SS&C's TimeShareWare

Former Mayan Palace Resort Licenses Enterprise Version to Support Further Growth

WINDSOR, Conn., Nov. 28, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SS&C Technologies Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq:SSNC), a global provider of financial services software and software-enabled services, today announced Grupo Vidanta, Mexico's leading timeshare resort and golf course developer, has chosen SS&C's TimeShareWare Enterprise software to manage its timeshare sales.

Grupo Vidanta Resorts is the fastest growing luxury vacation club in Mexico and needed to replace its existing technology to provide a integrated experience for its luxury focused customers.

TimeShareWare Enterprise will be the central platform for managing leads, tours, contract processing, owners, maintenance assessments, loan servicing, commissions, and reservations with integration to the front desk, the web, and other existing 3rd party systems. Users will access secure information from a central database via screens developed using the latest cloud based technology. This technology enables users to access information and customizable reports from a web browser or a simple desktop icon, delivering a rich and user-friendly work environment.

"We are pleased to be partnered with Grupo Vidanta on this project," said Bill Stone, CEO of SS&C Technologies, Inc. "Our expertise in integrating complex systems, improving business processes, and delivering the latest technology, is a perfect fit for Vidanta's needs. We are excited to participate in a meaningful way in their future growth."

About Grupo Vidanta

Grupo Vidanta has evolved for more than 35 years into one of Mexico's leading developers of hotels and resorts, golf courses, vacation ownership, and tourism infrastructure, including Mexico's first privately built and owned international airport at Puerto Penasco.
