

EVENTBRITE, INC.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. General Statement of Purpose

The purposes of the Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Eventbrite, Inc. (the “Company”) are to discharge the Board’s responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s directors and executive officers, oversee the Company’s overall compensation structure, policies and programs, and review the Company’s processes and procedures for the consideration and determination of director and executive officer compensation. The primary objective of the Compensation Committee is to develop and implement compensation policies and plans that ensure the attraction and retention of key management personnel, the motivation of management to achieve the Company’s corporate goals and strategies, and the alignment of the interests of management with the long-term interests of the Company’s stockholders.

II. Composition

The number of individuals serving on the Compensation Committee shall be fixed by the Board from time to time but shall consist of no fewer than three members, each of whom shall satisfy the independence standards established by the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), subject to any applicable exceptions in the NYSE rules. In determining the members of the Compensation Committee, the Board will consider whether the members qualify as “non-employee directors” as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and meet all other eligibility requirements of applicable laws.

The members of the Compensation Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board and may be replaced or removed by the Board at any time, with or without cause. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically and without any further action constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from the Compensation Committee. Any vacancy on the Compensation Committee, occurring for whatever reason, may be filled only by the Board. The Board shall designate one member of the Compensation Committee to serve as chair of the Compensation Committee (the “Chair”).

III. Meetings

The Compensation Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this Charter (“Charter”). The Compensation Committee may meet in person or by conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. A majority of the members of the Compensation Committee shall constitute a quorum for purposes of holding a meeting, and the Compensation Committee may act by a vote of a majority of members present at a meeting. The Compensation Committee may also act by unanimous written consent (which may include electronic consent) in lieu of a meeting to the extent permitted by the Company's bylaws, as may be adopted and amended by the Board from time to time. The Chair, in consultation with the other members and management, may set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter.

IV. Responsibilities and Authority

The Compensation Committee's purpose and responsibilities shall be to:

A. Review of Charter

- Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and submit any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

B. Processes and Procedures for Considering and Determining Director and Executive Officer Compensation

- Review and reassess periodically (and where appropriate, make such recommendations to the Board as the Compensation Committee deems advisable with regard to) the Company's processes and procedures for considering and determining director and executive officer compensation, and review and discuss with management the description of such processes and procedures to be included in the Company's proxy statement.

C. Compensation Committee Report

- Review and discuss with management the Compensation Discussion and Analysis to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K ("CD&A").
- Based on its review and discussions with management, recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K.
- Prepare the Compensation Committee Report to be included in the Company's proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the NYSE rules, and any other rules and regulations applicable to the Company.

D. Annual Evaluation of the Compensation Committee

- Perform an annual evaluation of the Compensation Committee and report the results to the Board.

E. Rewards Programs, Incentive-Compensation and Equity-Based Plans

- Review and approve the Company's company-wide rewards programs and incentive compensation plans.
- Review and approve equity-based awards and policies and procedures for the grant of equity-based awards.

F. Matters Related to Compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer

- Review and approve the corporate goals and objectives to be considered in determining the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO").
- Evaluate the CEO's performance in light of the goals and objectives that were set for the CEO and approve, or recommend to the independent members of the Board for approval, the CEO's compensation based on that evaluation, including grants and awards under incentive-based compensation plans and equity-based plans for the CEO, in each case consistent with the terms of such plans.
- In formulating its recommendation regarding the long-term incentive component of the CEO's compensation, consider the Company's performance and stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to CEOs at comparable companies, and the awards made by the Company to the CEO in past years.
- Review periodically the aggregate amount of compensation being paid or potentially payable to the CEO.
- Exclude the CEO during voting or deliberations regarding their compensation.

G. Matters Related to Compensation of Other Executives

- Determine the compensation of the Executive-level (as defined under the Company's career framework) direct reports to the Chief Executive Officer (the "Senior Leadership Team") and any person who is not a member of the Senior Leadership Team who is an "officer" as defined in Rule 16a-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act (or any successor provision) (together, the "Other Executives").
- Review and approve grants and awards under incentive-based compensation plans and equity-based plans for the Other Executives, in each case consistent with the terms of such plans.
- Review periodically the aggregate amount of compensation being paid or potentially payable to the Other Executives.

H. Compensation Risk Matters

- Review and discuss annually with management the risks arising from the Company's compensation philosophy and practices applicable to all employees to determine whether they encourage excessive risk taking and to evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate such risks.

I. Succession Planning

- Review and discuss with the Board corporate succession plans for the Chief Executive Officer and key Other Executives of the Company.

J. Clawback

- Review and approve, or recommend to the Board for approval, and administer any clawback policy providing for the recoupment compensation received by executive officers or other employees.

V. Additional Authority

The Compensation Committee is authorized, on behalf of the Board, to do any of the following as it deems necessary or appropriate:

A. Matters Related to Compensation of the Company's Directors

- Review and make such recommendations to the Board as it deems advisable regarding the compensation of the directors of the Company, including compensation under any equity-based plans.

B. Matters Related to Compensation Consulting Firms or Other Outside Advisers

- In its sole discretion, retain or obtain the advice of compensation consultants, legal counsel and/or other advisers (independent or otherwise).
- Have sole responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser (each, a "Consultant") it retains (payment, as determined by the Compensation Committee, of reasonable compensation to any such Consultant to be funded by the Company). The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Compensation Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Consultant retained by the Compensation Committee.

- Before selecting a Consultant consider all factors relevant to the Consultant's independence from management of the Company, including the following:
 - The provision of other services to the Company by the Consultant's employer;
 - The amount of fees received from the Company by the Consultant's employer, as a percentage of the total revenue of the Consultant's employer;
 - The policies and procedures of the Consultant's employer that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
 - Any business or personal relationship of the Consultant with a member of the Compensation Committee;
 - Any stock of the Company owned by the Consultant;
 - Any business or personal relationship of Consultant or the Consultant's employer with an executive officer of the Company; and
 - Any additional applicable factors under NYSE rules relevant to the Consultant's or the Consultant's employer's independence from management.

The foregoing shall not apply to inside legal counsel or to a Consultant whose role is limited to the following activities for which no disclosure would be required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of Regulation S-K (or any successor provision): (i) consulting on a broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the Consultant and about which the Consultant does not provide advice.

- Prohibit the Company from engaging a compensation consultant engaged by the Compensation Committee, or an affiliate of any such compensation consultant, to provide any other services to the Company without the approval of the Compensation Committee.

VI. General

- The Compensation Committee may establish and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees consisting of one or more directors or officers to carry out its responsibilities from time to time, provided that such delegation is permitted under applicable laws, rules and regulations.

- The Compensation Committee shall make regular reports to the Board on matters for which it has responsibility.
- In carrying out its responsibilities, the Compensation Committee shall be entitled to rely on advice and information it receives from management and any experts, advisors and professionals with whom it may consult.
- The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to request that any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside legal counsel, the Company's independent auditor or any other professional retained by the Company meet with the Compensation Committee or its members or advisers.
- The Compensation Committee may perform such other functions the Board may request from time to time.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Compensation Committee in this Charter, the Compensation Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Compensation Committee, the Company's bylaws and applicable NYSE rules. The Compensation Committee also has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or adviser of the Company to meet with the Compensation Committee or any advisers engaged by the Compensation Committee.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of Eventbrite, Inc. on October 20, 2023.
