

TriplePoint Venture Growth BDC Corp. Announces Expansion of its Revolving Credit Facility

FACILITY INCREASED TO $350 MILLION

MENLO PARK, Calif., January 29, 2021 — TriplePoint Venture Growth BDC Corp. (NYSE: TPVG) (the “Company,” “TPVG,” “we,” “us,” or “our”), the leading financing provider to venture growth stage companies backed by a select group of venture capital firms in the technology and other high growth industries, today announced it has expanded its revolving credit facility (“Credit Facility”). The expansion increases the capacity of the Credit Facility from $325 million to $350 million and adds a new lender, First Foundation Bank. The $25 million increase was made under the accordion feature in the Credit Facility, which allows the Company, under certain circumstances, to increase the size of the Credit Facility to up to $400 million.

“We are pleased to announce another expansion of our revolving credit facility,” said Christopher M. Mathieu, Chief Financial Officer of TPVG. “We appreciate the continued support and partnership with our leading and expanded banking group.”

Borrowings under the Credit Facility are subject to various covenants including the leverage restrictions contained in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, provided that the Company’s asset coverage ratio under the Credit Facility shall not be less than 150%.

ABOUT TRIPLEPOINT VENTURE GROWTH BDC CORP.

The Company was formed to expand the venture growth stage business segment of TriplePoint Capital LLC, the leading global provider of financing across all stages of development to technology, life sciences and other high growth companies backed by a select group of venture capital firms. The Company’s investment objective is to maximize its total return to stockholders primarily in the form of current income and, to a lesser extent, capital appreciation by lending primarily with warrants to venture growth stage companies. The Company is an externally managed, closed-end, non-diversified management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.
