nVent Postpones Investor Day due to Weather-related State of Emergency Declared in New York City Metropolitan Area

2026-02-22

LONDON, Feb. 22, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- nVent Electric plc (NYSE: NVT) (“nVent”), a global leader in electrical connection and protection solutions, today announced that it is postponing its Investor Day, originally scheduled for February 24, 2026, due to a state of emergency declared for the New York metropolitan area ahead of a major winter storm, expected to bring blizzard conditions.

nVent is currently evaluating scheduling options. A formal invitation will be issued once the new date and location are finalized.

This postponement is strictly due to weather-related logistics and is not related to any change in the company's operations, financial performance or outlook.
