nVent and MAPEI Introduce Mapeheat Floor Heating Products in the U.S.

1/29/2020

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- nVent Electric plc (NYSE:NVT) ("nVent"), a global leader in electrical connection and protection solutions, today announced an alliance with MAPEI, a global leader in the manufacture of mortars, grouts, adhesives and chemicals for the building industry. Utilizing the premium electric floor heating technologies offered under the nVent NUHEAT brand, nVent and MAPEI collaborated to develop MAPEI Mapeheat with Technology from nVent for the U.S. flooring channel. nVent and MAPEI announced the news from the International Surfaces Event in Las Vegas, Nevada. The manufacturers introduced Mapeheat to the Canadian market in October 2019.

Select U.S.-based flooring channel distributors can purchase Mapeheat products from MAPEI and enjoy the same quality, functionality, assortment and purchase price as established by nVent. This easy-to-install, versatile, product line is suitable for use with tile, stone, laminate, engineered wood and luxury vinyl floors.

Products include:

- Mapeheat™ Mat : Pre-wired floor-heating mats designed for easy installation and ideal heat distribution, available in standard sizes or fully custom-manufactured to fit any size and shape of room.
- Mapeheat™ Membrane : Lightweight uncoupling, crack-isolation and waterproofing membrane.
- Mapeheat™ Cable : Available in 120 V and 240 V.
- Mapeheat™ Thermostats : Available in three formats:
 - Thermo Connect: Programmable, Wi-Fi-enabled floor heating thermostat works with popular smart home technologies such as Amazon Alexa® devices, Google Assistant™ virtual personal assistant, Nest Learning Thermostat®, and IFTTT web services.
 - Thermo Touch: Seven-day programmable floor heating thermostat

- Thermo Basic: Non-programmable floor heating thermostat

“After a successful launch in Canada, the nVent team is excited about its U.S. Mapeheat products launch,” said Marty Lee, nVent Vice President of Building and Infrastructure Solutions. “Both nVent and MAPEI have cultures that emphasize innovation, service and excellent warranty support. We are thrilled to be aligned with MAPEI for this product line, which will deliver great value to U.S. flooring channel distributors, installers and end-users. We look forward to delighting our mutual customers with the results of this alliance.”

“MAPEI takes pride in our commitment to continuously serve and support customers with the best quality and the most advanced and complete range of systems and services,” said Real Bourdage, MAPEI Corporation Strategic Marketing Director. “The launch of Mapeheat, in alliance with such an innovative and highly recognized manufacturer as nVent, is another step toward the further consolidation of our position as the leading brand and vendor of choice for the construction industry.”
