- HousingWire Tech100 recognizes technology companies across mortgage lending, servicing, real estate and investments
- Black Knight was recognized for its groundbreaking, consumer-facing Servicing Digital solution
- A white-labeled native mobile and responsive web application, Servicing Digital provides borrowers the ability to make loan payments from their phones and gain deep insights into their mortgage loan, home and neighborhood
- Servicing Digital extends digital capabilities into the servicing life cycle, allowing mortgage servicers to enhance the customer experience and retain their customers

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – April 11, 2019 -- Black Knight, Inc. (NYSE:BKI), a leading provider of integrated software, data and analytics to the mortgage and real estate industries, was named to the 2019 HousingWire Tech100 list, which recognizes the 100 most innovative technology companies in the U.S. housing economy, spanning mortgage lending, mortgage servicing, real estate and investments. This is Black Knight's second consecutive appearance on the annual list, and its fifth overall.

This year, Black Knight was recognized for its groundbreaking, consumer-facing Servicing Digital solution. Available to Black Knight servicing clients as a white-labeled native mobile and responsive web application, Servicing Digital provides borrowers the ability to make loan payments from their phones and gain deep insights into their mortgage loan, home and neighborhood. In an industry that is moving increasingly digital overall, Servicing Digital extends digital capabilities into the servicing life cycle, allowing mortgage servicers to enhance the customer experience and improve retention.

“It is extremely gratifying to be recognized by HousingWire as one of the U.S. housing economy's leading technology providers for the second year running,” said Black Knight CEO Anthony

Jabbour. “This award demonstrates our commitment to innovating with a sense of urgency and executing upon our mission to help transform the mortgage industry with our clients. Servicing Digital not only changes the way mortgage servicers interact with their customers, but also helps them build richer, deeper relationships that translate into improved retention and revenue generation.”

Many of the nation’s largest financial institutions rely on Black Knight’s comprehensive suite of proven origination, servicing and default solutions and massive property, loan and public records data to help gain new clients, retain existing clients, operate more efficiently and reduce risk.

“These companies hold the most innovative and impactful technology in mortgage finance, and continue to move markets forward with their new innovations,” said Kelsey Ramirez, HousingWire Associate Editor, in a press release revealing the winners of the 2019 Tech100 awards. “The future is bright for the mortgage industry, and it's because these companies continue to push the edge of what is possible.”
