Black Knight Data & Analytics Hires Dave Hurt to Lead Business Development for Its Capital Markets and Government Solutions

- Hurt has extensive experience in mortgage primary and secondary markets as both a vendor and a mortgage practitioner
- Hurt will work with Black Knight's sales teams to develop new and existing client relationships

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – May 2, 2017 -- Today, the Data & Analytics division of Black Knight Financial Services, Inc. (NYSE: BKFS) announced that Dave Hurt has joined the company to lead business development activities in the capital markets and government sectors. In this role, he will work with Black Knight's sales teams to develop new and existing client relationships. Hurt is a recognized industry professional, and has been a frequent speaker on topics such as pipeline hedging, mortgage risk, and prepayment and credit models.

With a career spanning four decades, Hurt has extensive experience in mortgage primary and secondary markets as both a vendor and a mortgage practitioner, having worked at several leading firms. In his most recent position, Hurt was responsible for business development in the global capital markets.

“Black Knight is a well-respected name in the mortgage industry,” Hurt said. “The company's market-leading mortgage behavioral model and extensive mortgage performance data are already used extensively in secondary markets. These offerings, along with Black Knight's other robust data and analytics solutions, including its public records and multiple listing service (MLS) data, tax data and reports, home price index, automated valuation models, HOA product suite and other solutions, provide us with a tremendous opportunity to continue Black Knight's rapid expansion in the capital market and government sectors.”

“The experience, industry insight and proven talent that Dave will contribute make him a perfect fit for our team,” said Kevin Coop, president of the Black Knight Data & Analytics division. “Dave’s knowledge of secondary mortgage markets and his extensive and trusted relationships with key market players will help us to strengthen and expand Black Knight’s industry position.”
