Black Knight Financial Services Launches the Motivity Anywhere App to Provide Mortgage Lenders With Mobile Access to Critical Business Intelligence

- Configurable, flexible solution that provides users with instant access to the specific business information they need to manage operations more efficiently and respond quickly to issues
- Provides dashboards and other visualizations of various production and performance metrics
- Delivers push notifications to alert users of critical, client-defined events and/or thresholds so action can be taken immediately when necessary
- Available on Apple and Android mobile devices

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. -- Oct. 25, 2016 -- Black Knight Financial Services, Inc. (NYSE:BKFS), a leading provider of integrated technology, data and analytics to the mortgage and real estate industries, announced today that it launched Motivity Anywhere, a mobile app that enables mortgage lenders to instantly access critical business intelligence on Apple and Android devices. The app leverages Black Knight's LoanSphere Motivity platform, which delivers real-time analytics to help mortgage lenders proactively monitor, measure and manage performance across the enterprise.

The Motivity Anywhere app provides easy, anytime access to visualizations of production and performance metrics, and includes configurable dashboards so users can view the specific information that is important to them. The app also provides push notifications, alerting users of critical, client-defined events and/or thresholds so action can be taken immediately when necessary.

Version 2.0 of the app, available at the end of 2016, will include high-level graphical summary data of key performance indicators, with the ability to drill down for granular information to help users easily identify the source of any issues. Users will have instant access to critical business metrics, such as trending, goals versus actual results, and much more.

"Motivity Anywhere allows our clients and partners to easily consume the information they need on their terms. The app provides the metrics from our Motivity platform directly to mobile devices in an intuitive, easy-to-understand manner, so users can instantly track performance, and receive actionable information via push notifications – anywhere, anytime,” said Jerry Halbrook, president of Black Knight’s Origination Technologies division.

The Motivity Anywhere app is available now and can be downloaded directly from Apple or Android stores on a mobile device.
