Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information
This announcement may contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements that are not historical facts are “forward looking statements.” The use of words such as “anticipates,” “estimates,” “expects,” “plans” and “believes,” among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, among others, statements relating to: the expected timing of the transaction, Match Group’s future financial performance, Match Group’s business prospects and strategy, anticipated trends, and other similar matters. These forward looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and assumptions about future events, which are inherently subject to uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Actual results could differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including, among others: uncertainties related to, among other things, the costs and expected benefits of the transaction, the expected timing of the transaction or whether it will be completed, whether the conditions to the transaction can be satisfied or any event, change or other circumstance occurs that could give rise to the termination of the transaction (including the failure to receive any required regulatory approvals), any litigation arising out of or relating to the transaction, and the impact of the transaction on the business of Match Group; and other circumstances beyond Match Group’s control. Certain of these and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in Match Group’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Other unknown or unpredictable factors that could also adversely affect Match Group’s business, financial condition and results of operations may arise from time to time. In light of these risks and uncertainties, these forward-looking statements may not prove to be accurate. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which only reflect the views of Match Group management as of the date of this announcement. Match Group does not undertake to update these forward-looking statements. For purposes of this presentation, references to “Asia” include the Asia Pacific region and the Middle East.
Transaction Overview

Structure & Consideration

- Match Group to acquire Hyperconnect
- Purchase price of $1.725 billion
  - Assumes Hyperconnect is debt-free at closing
- Consideration mix of 50% cash and 50% newly issued MTCH shares
  - Match Group has the option to pay up to 100% in cash at close

Anticipated Closing

- Q2 2021

Leverage Impact

- Expect cash portion to be funded through cash on hand and existing revolving credit facility
- Remain on track to reduce net leverage below 3x by end of 2021

1) Alternative sources of debt financing anticipated to be used if Match Group elects or otherwise deems it advisable to pay more than 50% in cash, which would impact the timeline for reducing net leverage below 3x.
