The Committee shall meet periodically at such times as it determines to be necessary or appropriate, shall be accountable to the Board, shall maintain records of its meetings and actions, and shall periodically report to the Board regarding any issues, recommendations or findings as it deems appropriate. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Committee may act only upon approval of a majority of its members. The Committee may invite members of management or others to its meetings. However, management should be absent from any discussion or review where the individual compensation of such persons is determined. The Committee shall have the opportunity at each regularly scheduled meeting to meet in executive session without the presence of management. The Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to one or more subcommittees as it may deem appropriate to the extent allowed by applicable law and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

IV. Authority and Resources

The Committee shall have the sole authority to (1) select, retain and terminate any search firm engaged to assist in identifying director candidates and (2) select, retain and terminate (or obtain the advice of) any adviser to assist in the performance of its duties, including the evaluation of director, Chief Executive Officer or other executive officer compensation, but only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to the adviser's independence from management, including those specified in Section 303A.05(c) of the NYSE Listed Company Manual. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any firm or adviser retained by the Committee and shall have the sole authority to approve the firm's or adviser's fees and other terms and conditions of the firm's or adviser's retention. The Committee may conduct or authorize studies and investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities and may retain outside legal or other advisers to assist in the conduct of any such study or investigation or for any other reason as determined by the Committee. The Company shall pay all third parties retained by the Committee such reasonable compensation, including without limitation usual and customary expenses and charges, as shall be determined by the Committee. The Company also shall pay such ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties as shall be determined by the Committee.

The responsibilities of the Committee shall include the following, along with any other matters as the Board may delegate to the Committee from time to time:

- 1. Chief Executive Officer Performance. The Committee shall review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to Chief Executive Officer compensation and shall evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance in light of these goals and objectives.

2. Chief Executive Officer Compensation. The Committee shall review and approve, either as a Committee or together with the other independent directors as directed by the Board, the compensation arrangements for the Chief Executive Officer, including base salary, incentive awards, equity-based awards, and any other long-term incentive awards based on the evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's performance and any other relevant factors.

3. Director Compensation. The Committee shall review periodically, and recommend to the Board any changes to, the form and amount of compensation for directors in light of the following principles: (a) compensation should be competitive with the market and geared towards attracting and retaining highly-qualified independent professionals to represent the Company's stockholders; (b) compensation should fairly pay directors for their time and effort; and (c) compensation should align directors' interests with the long-term interests of stockholders. The Committee shall periodically review the principles underlying director compensation and make recommendations to the Board when appropriate.

4. Officer Compensation. The Committee, after consultation with and upon recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, shall determine for officers (a) annual compensation; and (b) any employment contract, severance/termination agreement, retirement arrangement, change in control arrangement, and any special or supplemental benefit arrangement that differs in a material way from the Company's form contracts, agreements and arrangements.

5. Compensation Principles and Philosophy. When appropriate, the Committee shall recommend to the non-management Board members changes to the Chief Executive Officer and other officer compensation principles and periodically review the general employee compensation philosophy to ensure it is appropriate and does not incentivize unnecessary and excessive risk taking.

6. Compensation and Benefits Programs. The Committee shall oversee overall compensation and benefits programs and policies. Named fiduciary responsibility and responsibility for day-to-day administration of such programs is delegated to the Senior Vice President-Human Resources, including authority to make certain limited amendments, modifications or supplements to designated benefit plans, trusts and related documents. Amendment or modification authority not so delegated remains with the Committee or the Board, as appropriate. The Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board with respect to the profit-sharing contributions to the Company's 401(k) plan.

7. Incentive Compensation Plans and Equity-Based Plans. The Committee shall also assist management in the preparation of the disclosure in the Company's annual proxy statement regarding director independence and the operations of the Committee.

9. Say-on-Pay. The Committee shall review and recommend for approval by the Board (a) the Company's approach with respect to the advisory vote on executive compensation ("say-on-pay") and (b) how frequently the Company should give stockholders the opportunity to have a say-on-pay, taking into account the results of stockholder advisory votes on the frequency of say-on-pay at the Company. The Committee also shall review the results of say-on-pay and consider any implications.

10. Recommend Criteria for Selection of Directors. The Committee is responsible for developing the criteria for the requisite skills and characteristics of new Board members as well as composition of the Board as a whole. The Committee shall periodically review and, if desirable, recommend changes to the criteria for the selection of new directors as adopted by the Board from time to time as set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

11. Recommend Director Candidates. The Committee shall recommend to the Board a slate of director nominees for election or reelection at each annual meeting of stockholders. The Committee shall identify, recruit and recommend to the Board only those candidates that the Committee believes are qualified to become Board members consistent with the criteria for selection of new directors adopted from time to time by the Board and shall consider the performance of incumbent directors in determining whether to recommend them for reelection. The Committee shall consider director candidates timely submitted by the Company's stockholders in accordance with the notice provisions and procedures set forth in the Company's Bylaws and shall apply the same criteria to the evaluation of those candidates as the Committee applies to other director candidates.

12. Recommend Committee Members. The Committee shall recommend to the Board candidates to serve as members and Chairpersons of each of the Board's committees. In recommending a director for committee membership, the Committee shall take into consideration the factors set forth in the charter of the applicable committee, if any, as well as any other factors it deems appropriate, including without limitation, the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, the consistency of the director's experience and qualifications with the goals of the committee and the interplay of the director's experience and qualifications with the qualifications and experience of the other committee members.

13. Fill Board and Committee Vacancies. The Committee shall propose to the Board director candidates to fill vacancies on the Board or on Board committees in the event of a director's resignation, death or retirement, a change in Board or committee composition requirements, or the expansion of the Board or committee. In the case of proposing a director nominee to fill a vacancy on the Board created by an expansion of the Board, the Committee shall also recommend to the Board the class of directors in which the candidate should serve.

14. Review Committee Structures. The Committee shall periodically review and, if desirable, recommend to the Board changes in the number, responsibilities and membership of the Board committees, and recommend that the Board establish any special committees as necessary to properly address ethical, legal or other matters that may arise from time to time.

15. Review Changed Circumstances of Directors. The Committee shall review the appropriateness of a director's continued Board and committee membership in light of any change in the director's employment, relationship with the Company or any other changed circumstance that could affect the director's independence, qualifications, or availability.

16. Develop Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines pursuant to the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, review and reassess the adequacy of the Corporate Governance Guidelines at least annually and recommend to the Board any changes deemed appropriate. The Committee shall stay abreast of developments in the area of corporate governance generally to ensure that the Company remains current in its governance policies. If necessary or advisable, the Committee will recommend to the Board appropriate revisions to the Company's corporate governance framework, including its certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

17. Evaluate Stockholder Proposals. The Committee shall evaluate and make recommendations to the Board regarding stockholder proposals.

18. Annual Performance Evaluation. The Committee shall establish procedures for the Committee to exercise oversight of, and shall administer, annual performance evaluations of management, the Board and the Board's committees, including a review of this Committee by its members, and shall present the evaluations to the Board. The performance evaluation of the Committee shall be conducted in such manner as the Committee deems appropriate, and the report to the Board may take the form of an oral report.

19. Corporate and Social Responsibility. The Committee shall review the Company's corporate responsibility program, and any related policies and practices, at least annually and make recommendations to the Board regarding plans and progress against key initiatives. Generally, the Company considers its commitment to corporate and social responsibility to include, among other things, respect for human rights, ethical and sustainable sourcing, environmental and climate change initiatives, evaluating the impact of Company practices on the communities in which it operates and its associates, and charitable giving.
