

Sensata Technologies Completes Acquisition of Sensor-NITE Shares

August 1, 2011 6:59 AM ET

ALMELO, Netherlands, Aug. 1, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

Sensata Technologies Holding N.V. (NYSE: ST) announced today that certain of its companies have completed the previously announced acquisition of the shares of Sensor-NITE Group Companies from Elex Group.

Sensor-NITE is a leading manufacturer of high temperature sensors used in the exhaust after-treatment systems of diesel and leading-edge gasoline engines. The business is headquartered in Tessenderlo, Belgium, with operations and manufacturing in Sofia and Botevgrad, Bulgaria. Sensor-NITE recorded revenues of approximately $135 million in 2010.

While continuing to use the Sensor-NITE brand name, Sensata will refer to this business as the High Temperature Sensors product family or HTS in future communications. HTS will become part of the company's global Sensors business.

Sensata Technologies President and Chief Operating Officer Martha Sullivan said, "The acquisition of Sensor-NITE provides Sensata with a new technology platform that will amplify the already-strong growth opportunities we are seeing in engine powertrain systems. We are looking forward to working with the Sensor-NITE team to bring these solutions to an even broader spectrum of customers as we continue to focus on products related to energy efficiency and a cleaner environment."

Chief Financial Officer Robert Hureau said, "We expect the acquisition to be immediately accretive to earnings and to generate significant value to our shareholders."

Sensata used a combination of cash on hand and funds from its revolving credit facility to finance the euro 225 million transaction.
