

SKYLINE CHAMPION CORPORATION
COMPENSATION RECOUPMENT POLICY
November 20, 2020 (the "Effective Date")

This Skyline Champion Corporation Compensation Recoupment Policy (the "Policy") applies to all Executives (as defined below) of Skyline Champion Corporation, an Indiana corporation (the "Corporation"), relative to Performance-Based Compensation (as defined below) granted on or after the Effective Date.

In the event of a restatement of the Corporation's financial statements (other than due to a change in applicable accounting rules or interpretations) the result of which is that any Performance-Based Compensation paid to one or more Executives during the three years preceding the date on which the Corporation has determined a restatement would be necessary would have been lower had it been calculated based on such restated financial statements, the Compensation Committee of the Corporation's Board of Directors (the "Committee") shall review such Performance-Based Compensation and the circumstances involved as it deems appropriate.

If the Committee determines that the amount of any such Performance-Based Compensation actually paid or awarded to an Executive (the "Awarded Compensation") would have been a lower amount than the Performance-Based Compensation payable to the Executive if calculated based on such restated financial statements (the "Adjusted Compensation"), and if the Board of Directors (or a duly authorized committee thereof) determines, in its sole discretion, that such Executive engaged in intentional misconduct which materially contributed to the need for such restatement, then the Committee may, except as provided below, use reasonable efforts to seek to recover for the benefit of the Corporation the excess of the Awarded Compensation over the Adjusted Compensation (the "Excess Compensation").

The Committee may make a determination not to seek recovery of Excess Compensation if the Committee determines that to do so would be (i) unreasonable or (ii) contrary to the best interests of the Corporation. In making such determination, the Committee shall take into account such considerations as it deems appropriate, including, but not limited to, (A) the likelihood of success in recovering the claimed Excess Compensation under governing law versus the cost and effort involved, (B) whether the assertion of a claim may prejudice the interests of the Corporation, including in any related proceeding or investigation, (C) the passage of time since the occurrence of the applicable misconduct and (D) the existence of any governmental investigation or pending legal proceeding relating to the applicable misconduct.

For the purposes of this Policy, (i) the term "Executive" shall refer to any current or former "officer" of the Corporation for purposes of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and (ii) the term "Performance-Based Compensation" means all bonuses and other incentive and equity compensation awarded to each of the Corporation's Executives, the amount, payment and/or vesting of which was calculated based wholly, or in part, on the application of objective financial Performance criteria measured during any part of the period covered by the restatement.

This Policy shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange (or any such other exchange on which the Corporation's securities are listed from time to time) and any other law or regulation applicable at any given time (collectively, the "Applicable Rules") and shall otherwise be interpreted in the business judgment of the Board of Directors. To the extent that Applicable Rules require recovery of Excess Compensation in circumstances in addition to those specified above, nothing in this Policy shall be deemed to limit or restrict the right or obligation of the Corporation to recover Excess Compensation to the fullest extent required by such Applicable Rules. This Policy shall be deemed to be automatically amended, as of the date any Applicable Rule becomes effective with respect to the Corporation, to the extent required for this Policy to comply with such Applicable Rule.
