Carlisle Companies Incorporated Elects Jesse Singh to Board of Directors

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA, December 13, 2017 – Carlisle Companies Incorporated (NYSE: CSL) announced today that Jesse Singh, Chief Executive Officer of CPG International, has been elected to its Board of Directors, effective immediately. CPG International is a manufacturer of market-leading brands of highly engineered, premium, low-maintenance building products for residential and industrial markets.

Prior to joining CPG International, Mr. Singh served in a variety of leadership and international roles at 3M, including President of 3M Health Information Systems, Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales, Vice President of Stationary and Office Supplies, and President of Sumitomo 3M in Japan. Mr. Singh also spent several years in general management, marketing and account management positions for GE and Arthur Andersen. Mr. Singh holds a bachelor's degree from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

David A. Roberts, Chairman, said, "We are extremely pleased to have Jesse join our board. Leveraging his extensive, broad-based experience at industrial companies with diversified portfolios, Jesse will contribute significant value to Carlisle and its shareholders as we continue to pursue our growth strategies."
