Carlisle Companies' President and Chief Executive Officer to Present at Baird's 2006 Industrial Conference; Will Affirm Guidance and Announce Expanded TPO Roofing Production Capability at Carlisle SynTec

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, November 7, 2006 ... Richmond D. McKinnish, President and Chief Executive Officer of Carlisle Companies Incorporated (NYSE:CSL), will be presenting at Baird's 2006 Industrial Conference in Chicago, IL, tomorrow, November 8. During that presentation Mr. McKinnish will affirm previously issued guidance for income from continuing operations for the full year 2006 of $5.35 to $5.50 per diluted share.

Mr. McKinnish will also announce that Carlisle SynTec, the company's provider of commercial roofing products, plans to add an additional Sure-Weld[®] TPO production line to its newest manufacturing facility in Tooele, Utah. This added production capability is in direct response to the rapid growth in demand in the western roofing market that Carlisle SynTec has experienced since opening the Tooele facility in November 2005.

A copy of Mr. McKinnish's presentation will be available in the Investor Relations section of the Company's website at www.carlisle.com.

Carlisle is a diversified global manufacturing company serving the construction materials, commercial roofing, specialty tire and wheel, power transmission, heavy-duty brake and friction, heavy-haul truck trailer, foodservice, and data transmission industries.
