Proofpoint Executive to Present at ISACA North America ISRM Conference

David Knight to Speak About the New Face of Email Security

SUNNYVALE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 11/06/13 -- Proofpoint, Inc. (NASDAQ: PFPT)

WHAT:
Proofpoint, Inc. (NASDAQ: PFPT), a leading security-as-a-service provider, announced that David Knight, executive vice president of product management at Proofpoint, will be speaking in a session titled "Hackers Get Personal: New Face of Email Security" at ISACA's North America Information Security and Risk Management (ISRM) Conference. The conference provides guidance to governance, risk, security and compliance professionals from experts around the world.

Knight will discuss how email-based attacks have evolved in recent years and what new enterprise vulnerabilities security professionals need to be aware of. He will provide an overview of the tools that enterprises can use to protect themselves against phishing scams and procedures that work best for organizations as they prepare themselves for targeted attacks. Knight will detail recent research conducted by Proofpoint and share unique insights to inform and educate enterprise leaders and fellow security professionals on next generation threats.

The 2013 North America ISRM conference is hosted by ISACA -- a nonprofit global association serving more than 110,000 IT governance, assurance, risk and security professionals. The conference will cover the latest topics in information security and risk management in panel and interactive discussions, networking events, and engaging workshops. Attendees can attend sessions in the following tracks: Cybersecurity, Privacy/Security, Risk Management, Compliance, and Forums.
