

Director Independence Criteria

A director who satisfies all of the following criteria shall be presumed to be independent.

- Wyndham Destinations, Inc. does not currently employ, and has not within the last three years employed, the director or any of his or her immediate family members (except, in the case of immediate family members, in a non-executive officer capacity).
- The director is not currently, and has not within the last three years been, employed by Wyndham Destinations, Inc.'s present auditors, nor has any of his or her immediate family members been so employed (except in non-professional capacity not involving Wyndham Destinations, Inc.'s business).
- Neither the director, nor any of his or her immediate family members, is, or has been within the last three years, part of an "interlocking directorate" in which an executive officer of Wyndham Destinations, Inc. serves on the compensation (or equivalent) committee of another company that employs the director or his or her immediate family member as an executive officer.
- The director is not a current employee, nor is an immediate family member a current executive officer, of a company that has made payments to, or received payments from, Wyndham Destinations, Inc. for property or services in an amount in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeding the greater of $750,000 or 1% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.
- The director currently does not have, or had within the past three years, a personal services contract with Wyndham Destinations, Inc., its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer or other executive officer.
- The director has not received, and such director's immediate family member has not received, during any twelve-month period within the last three years, more than $100,000 in direct compensation from Wyndham Destinations, Inc. (other than Wyndham Destinations, Inc. Board of Director fees).
- The director is not currently an officer or director of a foundation, university or other non-profit organization to which Wyndham Destinations, Inc. within the last three years gave directly, or indirectly through the provision of services, more than the greater of (i) 1% of the consolidated gross revenues of such organization during any single fiscal year or (ii) $100,000.

For purposes of establishing director independence:

- (i) a director is an "affiliate" of Wyndham Destinations, Inc. or its subsidiaries if such director serves as a director, executive officer, partner, member, principal or designee of an entity that, directly or indirectly, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, Wyndham Destinations, Inc. or its subsidiaries;
- (ii) an "immediate family member" includes a person's spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers and fathers-in-law, sons and daughters-in-law, brothers and sisters-in-law and anyone (other than domestic employees) who shares such person's home;

- (iii) "executive officer" means Wyndham Destinations, Inc.'s president, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, any vice president of Wyndham Destinations, Inc. in charge of a principal business unit, division or function, any other officer who performs a policy-making function or any other person who performs similar policy-making functions for Wyndham Destinations, Inc.; and
- (iv) references to "Wyndham Destinations, Inc." in the foregoing criteria shall be deemed to include Wyndham Destinations, Inc. and any subsidiary in a consolidated group with Wyndham Destinations, Inc.

The Wyndham Destinations, Inc. Board will annually review all commercial and charitable relationships of directors. Whether directors meet these categorical independence criteria will be reviewed and will be made public annually prior to their standing for re-election to the Wyndham Destinations, Inc. Board.
