AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company as deemed necessary or appropriate by any member of the Committee to discharge his or her responsibilities hereunder, including human resources personnel preparing the CD&A, if then required, for inclusion in the Company's filings with the SEC. The Committee shall have the authority to obtain, at the expense of the Company, advice and assistance from internal or external legal, accounting or other advisors and consultants. In addition, the Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate any compensation consultant to assist the Committee in the evaluation of director, chief executive officer, executive officer or senior executive compensation, including sole authority to approve such consultant's reasonable fees and other retention terms, all at the Company's expense. The Committee shall also have authority to pay, at the expense of the Company, ordinary administrative expenses (including expenditures for external resources) that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. Except as limited by applicable law, rules and regulations, the Committee shall have authority to require that any of the Company's personnel, counsel, accountants or investment bankers, or any other consultant or advisor to the Company, attend any meeting of the Committee or meet with any member of the Committee or any of its special, outside legal, accounting or other, advisors or consultants.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees as appropriate, including, but not limited to, a subcommittee composed of one or more members of the Board or officers of the Company to grant stock awards under the Company's equity incentive plans to persons who are not (a) "Covered Employees" under Section 162(m) of the Code; (b) individuals with respect to whom the Company wishes to comply with Section 162(m) of the Code or (c) then subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act. Delegation by the Committee to any subcommittee shall not limit or restrict the Committee on any matter so delegated, and, unless the Committee alters or terminates such delegation, any action by the Committee on any matter so delegated shall not limit or restrict future action by such subcommittee on such matters. The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the Bylaws of the Company as in effect from time to time and Section 141 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. The approval of this Compensation Committee Charter by the Board shall be construed as a delegation of authority to the Committee with respect to the responsibilities set forth herein.

RESPONSIBILITIES

To implement the Committee's purpose, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities. The Committee may supplement and, except as otherwise required by applicable law or the requirements of any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is listed, deviate from these activities as appropriate under the circumstances:

1. Overall Compensation Strategy. The Committee shall review, modify (as needed) and approve the overall compensation strategy and policies for the Company, including:

- reviewing and approving corporate performance goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers and other senior management, as appropriate, which powers shall include the power to exercise discretion to adjust compensation based on such goals and objectives;
- evaluating and approving the compensation plans and programs advisable for the Company, as well as evaluating and approving the modification or termination of existing plans and programs;
- overseeing the Company's compliance with the requirement under the Nasdaq rules that, with limited exceptions, the Company's stockholders approve equity compensation plans;
- establishing policies with respect to equity compensation arrangements with the objective of appropriately balancing the perceived value of equity compensation and the dilutive and other costs of that compensation to the Company;
- reviewing compensation practices and trends to assess the adequacy and competitiveness of the Company's executive compensation programs among comparable companies in the Company's industry; however, the Committee shall exercise independent judgment in determining the appropriate levels and types of compensation to be paid;
- reviewing and approving the terms of any employment agreements, severance arrangements, change-of-control protections and any other compensatory arrangements (including, without limitation, perquisites and any other form of compensation) for the Company's executive officers and, as appropriate, other senior management;
- reviewing and approving any compensation arrangement for any executive officer involving any subsidiary, special purpose or similar entity, taking into account the potential for conflicts of interest in such arrangements and whether the arrangement has the potential to benefit the Company;
- reviewing the Company's practices and policies of employee compensation as they relate to risk management and risk-taking incentives, to determine whether such compensation policies and practices are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company; and

- evaluating the efficacy of the Company's compensation policy and strategy in achieving expected benefits to the Company and otherwise furthering the Committee's policies.

2. Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. The Committee shall review, determine and approve (or, if it deems appropriate, recommend to the Board for determination and approval) the compensation and other terms of employment of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and shall review annually with the Board an evaluation of the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of relevant corporate performance goals and objectives, and taking into account, among other things, the policies of the Committee and the Chief Executive Officer's performance in:

- fostering a corporate culture that promotes the highest level of integrity and the highest ethical standards;
- developing and executing the Company's long-term strategic plan and conducting the business of the Company in a manner appropriate to enhance long-term stockholder value;
- achieving the Chief Executive Officer's individual performance goals and objectives; and
- the achievement of any other corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the Chief Executive Officer as established by the Committee.

In determining the long-term incentive component of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Committee should seek to achieve an appropriate level of risk and reward, taking into consideration the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the potential benefits and costs to the Company of the award and such other criteria as the Committee deems advisable. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during the voting or deliberations regarding his or her compensation.

3. Compensation of Other Executive Officers and Senior Management. The Committee shall review and approve the individual and corporate performance goals and objectives of the Company's other executive officers (as that term is defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act and Rule 16a-1 thereunder) and other senior management, as appropriate, that are periodically established. The Committee shall determine and approve all elements of the compensation and other terms of employment of these executive officers and other senior management, as appropriate, taking into consideration the person's success in achieving his or her individual performance goals and objectives and the corporate performance goals and objectives deemed relevant to the person as established by the Committee. The Committee shall also review and approve compensation arrangements for persons newly hired as executive officers of the Company and compensation changes for employees promoted into such roles. The Chief Executive Officer may be present during these deliberations but may not vote.

4. Compensation of Directors. The Committee shall review and recommend to the Board the type and amount of compensation to be paid or awarded to Board members, including any consulting, retainer, Board meeting, committee and committee chair fees and stock option grants or awards. The Committee may invite the Company's Chief Executive Officer to be present during these deliberations.

5. Selection of Compensation Consultants, Independent Legal Counsel and Other Advisors. The Committee shall have direct responsibility for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or any other advisors engaged for the purpose of advising the Committee. Such compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or other advisors and consultants shall report directly, and be accountable, to the Committee. The Committee may select compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisors to the Committee only after assessing the independence of such person in accordance with the requirements of any stock exchange on which any of the Company's capital stock is listed and appropriate guidance or rules from the SEC. Before selecting any such consultant, legal counsel, expert or advisor¹, the Committee shall consider the following independence factors:

- The provision of other services to the Company by the entity that employs the consultant, legal counsel, expert or advisor (the "Employing Firm").
- The amount of fees received from the Company by the Employing Firm, as a percentage of the total revenue of the Employing Firm.
- The policies and procedures of the Employing Firm that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest.
- Any business or personal relationship of the consultant, legal counsel, expert or advisor with a member of the Committee.
- Any business or personal relationship of the consultant, legal counsel, expert, advisor or Employing Firm with an executive officer of the Company.
- Any stock of the Company owned by the consultant, legal counsel, expert or advisor.

6. Administration of Benefit Plans. The Committee shall have full power and authority to adopt, amend and terminate the Company's stock option plans, stock appreciation rights plans, pension and profit sharing plans, incentive plans, stock bonus plans, stock purchase plans, bonus plans, deferred compensation plans and sub-plans thereof and similar programs. The Committee shall have full power and authority to administer these plans, establish guidelines, interpret plan documents, select participants, approve grants and awards, approve modifications to awards, and exercise such other power and authority as may be permitted or required under such plans. To the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, the Committee may recommend to the Board the establishment or modification of equity compensation plans for the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall retain the right to act on all such matters without limiting the Committee's authority, subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

7. Compensation Discussion and Analysis. When and as required by applicable rules and regulations of the SEC in effect from time to time, the Committee shall review and discuss with management the Company's disclosures contained under the caption "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" for use in any of the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements and make recommendations to the Board that the CD&A be approved for inclusion in the Company's annual reports on Form 10-K, registration statements, proxy statements or information statements.

¹ However, the Committee need not evaluate the six independence factors before consulting with or obtaining advice from the Corporation's in-house counsel. Similarly, the Committee is not required to conduct an independent assessment with respect to any compensation advisor that only consults on a broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors that is generally available to all salaried employees or for any compensation advisor that provides information that is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the advisor, and about which the advisor does not provide advice.

8. Conflict of Interest Disclosure. The Committee shall review and discuss with management any conflicts of interest raised by the work of a compensation consultant or advisor retained by the Committee or management and how such conflict is being addressed, and prepare any necessary disclosure in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.

9. Stock Ownership Guidelines. The Committee shall oversee and at least annually review compliance with the stock ownership guidelines for directors and executive officers of the Company.

10. Say-on-Pay Votes. The Committee shall consider the results of shareholder advisory votes on executive compensation (say-on-pay) and the frequency of such votes.

11. Committee Report. The Committee shall prepare and review the Committee report on executive compensation to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules and regulations.

12. Committee Self-Assessment. The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually. The Committee shall also at least annually review and assess the adequacy of this charter and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.

13. General Authority. The Committee shall perform such other functions and have such other powers as may be necessary or appropriate in the discharge of any of the foregoing.
