Murphy USA Announces Addition to Executive Leadership Team

EL DORADO, Arkansas, August 30, 2016 - Murphy USA Inc. (NYSE:MUSA) today announced that Rob Chumley will join the company in the recently established role of Senior Vice President, Marketing.

Chumley will oversee the Merchandising and Marketing functions at Murphy USA, a leading retailer of fuel and convenience merchandise. In this role, he will define the strategy for both marketing and merchandising and drive key initiatives to support retail operations and merchandising with a focus on loyalty, digital marketing and promotional programs.

With more than 25 years of experience at leading brands including 7-Eleven, Kellogg's, Coca-Cola, Gillette and Procter & Gamble, Chumley brings a strong and diverse retail and consumer packaged goods background to the business. He earned an MBA from Dalhousie University and a Bachelors of Engineering from Royal Military College of Canada.

"Rob's proven track record for exceeding sales and profit objectives, building organizational capabilities and driving change make him an important addition to our leadership team. This new role aligns well with our broader strategy and the work of Rob and his team will be a strong component of our independent growth plan," noted Andrew Clyde, President and CEO, Murphy USA Inc.
