The Mirage, which has been home to the city's most celebrated entertainment over the years, including world-famous illusionists Siegfried & Roy, The Beatles™ LOVE™ by Cirque du Soleil® and Danny Gans, will launch a new era with the introduction of Terry Fator. Fator will perform five shows a week in the 1,265-seat Terry Fator Theatre (currently the Danny Gans Theatre) beginning in February 2009. Tickets will go on sale later this year.

Scott Sibella, president and COO of The Mirage, said, "Terry is an extraordinary talent and won the hearts of millions of Americans when he competed in the TV show. We are thrilled that he will perform at The Mirage where millions more will be able to enjoy him."

"We're absolutely thrilled for Terry's meteoric success following his victory on 'America's Got Talent' less than a year ago," said the show's executive producer, Cecile Frot-Coutaz. "It is a true testament to his talent as an entertainer, and has really raised the bar for our upcoming third season."

Terry Fator said, "This is an unbelievable dream come true and I am looking forward to becoming a member of The
