CityCenter is a joint venture between MGM MIRAGE (NYSE: MGM) and Infinity World Development Corp, a subsidiary of Dubai World. The dazzling vertical city will transform the Las Vegas Strip when it opens in late 2009. Talented applicants with a commitment to service excellence have the chance not only to be part of this landmark destination, but also to enjoy the rewards of being an employee of MGM MIRAGE, the world's premier developer and operator of luxury resorts. Nevada Business Journal named MGM MIRAGE one of the "Best Companies to Work for" while Fortune recognized it as one of the "Top 50 Best Companies in the U.S. for Minorities."

CityCenter will reward its employees' talent, hard work and dedication to providing quality service with a competitive compensation and benefits package that includes a choice of healthcare coverage options and retirement savings plans.

About CityCenter

CityCenter is an unprecedented urban metropolis that will open in late 2009 on 67 acres between Bellagio and Monte Carlo resorts on the Las Vegas Strip. CityCenter is a joint venture between MGM MIRAGE (NYSE: MGM) and Infinity World Development Corp, a subsidiary of Dubai World. CityCenter will feature ARIA, a 61-story, 4,000-room gaming resort; three luxury non-gaming hotels including Las Vegas' first Mandarin Oriental, The Harmon Hotel, Spa & Residences and Vdara Hotel; Veer Towers, the development's only strictly residential buildings; approximately 2,600 condominium residences; and Crystals, a 500,000-square-foot retail and entertainment district. CityCenter also will feature a $40 million public fine art program with works by acclaimed artists including Maya Lin, Jenny Holzer, Nancy Rubins, Claes Oldenburg and Coosje van Bruggen, among others. CityCenter is a design collaboration between MGM MIRAGE and eight internationally acclaimed architectural firms including Pelli Clarke Pelli, Kohn Pedersen Fox, Helmut Jahn, RV Architecture LLC led by Rafael Vinoly, Foster + Partners(1), Studio Daniel Libeskind(1), Rockwell Group and Gensler. Charting a new course for responsible growth in Las Vegas, MGM MIRAGE is pursuing the U.S. Green Building Council's Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certification at CityCenter. As planned, the 18-million-square foot, multi-use project will become one of the world's largest environmentally sustainable urban communities. Dubai World, a major investment holding company that wholly owns or has substantial interest in a portfolio of businesses, owns 50 percent of CityCenter through its affiliates

Infinity World (Cayman) L.P. and Infinity World Investments LLC. The Dubai World Group has more than 50,000 employees in over 100 cities around the globe.
