LAS VEGAS

Grammy-nominated 19/RCA recording artist DAUGHTRY will perform a live acoustic set at The Beatles REVOLUTION Lounge at The Mirage Sunday, April 13. All proceeds from the ticket sales will go to the ONE Campaign (ONE.org) to fight the emergency of global AIDS and extreme poverty. DAUGHTRY will perform hits from their self-titled album.

Two hundred tickets to the performance will be auctioned on eBay March 24 to March 31. The bidding will begin at 7 p.m. PDT, to access the auction site, click <http://www.ebay.com/daughtry>; must be 21 years or older to enter. The auction is being managed on eBay Giving Works by Auction Cause, a premier online auction management agency specializing in high-profile design, strategy, and cause marketing for corporations and nonprofits worldwide.

Portions of this very special performance, sponsored in part by the Rhapsody® digital music service, will later be made available for DAUGHTRY fans to enjoy on-demand at Rhapsody.com/Daughtry and on RollingStone.com.

"We are really excited about this acoustic show at the REVOLUTION lounge. It is a chance to share a special evening with our fans and raise money for a great cause, ONE.org," says Chris Daughtry.

David Saltz, Executive Producer and Stirling McIlwaine, Co-Executive Producer.

ABOUT DAUGHTRY

Anointed as the quickest selling rock debut in Soundscan history, DAUGHTRY landed the "#1 top selling album in the country" title twice, selling over 3 million copies in 2007 making them the best selling band of that year according to Billboard. DAUGHTRY continues to reign in 2008 closing in on 4 million copies sold with an opening slot on the Bon Jovi tour and a new single "Feels Like Tonight." Work will soon begin on their sophomore release.
