From 6 p.m. to 11 p.m., Crystals will offer unique in-store and destination-wide experiences, feature performances from Nevada Ballet Theatre and spotlight the hottest looks with models strolling the center dressed in the latest fall fashions. Crystals also will host celebrity stylist and designer Patricia Field's first fashion trends showcase in Las Vegas. Fashion's Night Out is a global initiative created in 2009 to put the fun back into fashion through dynamic events and partnerships.

Crystals invites FNO attendees to shop for a cause at their favorite designers with the second annual "Charity Crawl." Participating retailers will donate a percentage of sales to the local charity partner they have selected for the evening, which include:

- Assouline / Easter Seals Nevada
- Bottega Veneta / After-School All-Stars Las Vegas
- Brunello Cucinelli / The Pajama Program
- Dior / Jewish Federation of Las Vegas
- Donna Karan / United Way of Southern Nevada
- Fendi / Opportunity Village
- Jimmy Choo / Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health

- Kiki de Montparnasse / UC San Diego Nevada Cancer Institute
- Marni / Lied Discovery Children's Museum
- Paul Smith / Positively Arts Foundation
- Prada / Nathan Adelson Hospice
- Pucci / The Shade Tree Shelter
- Roberto Cavalli / The Public Education Foundation
- Stella McCartney / Nevada Ballet Theatre
- TAG Heuer / Keep Memory Alive

"This year's Fashion's Night Out celebration at Crystals is an incredible opportunity for Las Vegas locals and visitors to enjoy and learn about fashion while supporting a wide array of charitable causes," said Farid Matraki, senior vice president and general manager of Crystals. "We debuted the philanthropic element to Fashion's Night Out in 2011 with incredible success and are elated to introduce even more charity-designer partnerships this year."

Throughout the night, retailers will celebrate with in-store activities including cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, DJs, photo booths and more. Other festivities will include:

- Dream Racing Pit Stop – Take part in a luxury experience that will get your adrenaline pumping with 3D Ferrari racing simulators and fully suited driving professionals on hand to give first-hand racing advice. Sip cocktails at the private bar and enjoy time in the "man cave," a haven for all things masculine.
- Nevada Ballet Theatre – Enjoy intimate "pop-up" performances by the brilliant Nevada Ballet Theatre, the state's largest professional ballet company and dance academy. Featuring talented dancers performing their vast repertoire of styles, this will be a performance you won't soon forget.
- Spa & Salon Vdara – Vdara Hotel & Spa will offer complimentary hand massages, exciting prizes and special resort discounts at its "mini spa."
- Gallery Row – CityCenter's featured gallery artists Dale Chihuly, Rodney Lough Jr. and Richard MacDonald will present mini galleries of their spectacular works.
- Michael Shulman – Las Vegas social maven Michael Shulman will serve as the evening's master of ceremonies as well as provide high-energy DJ stylings, adding a new level of fun to the evening's events.
- smartwater hydration lounge – Take a break from shopping and enjoy complimentary ice-cold smartwater® served by stylish smartwater® brand ambassadors in a chic lounge area with picture-perfect views of the main stage.

Admission to Fashion's Night Out is free and open to the public.
