Throughout its storied three decades-plus career, Duran Duran has sold over 100 million records, scored 18 American hit singles, 30 UK Top 20 singles and performed to millions of loyal fans and concert-goers across the globe. The band – singer Simon Le Bon, keyboardist Nick Rhodes, bassist John Taylor and drummer Roger Taylor – has achieved these feats in their own unique way; fusing pop music, art, technology and fashion with a sense of style and confidence that have made them an unstoppable force.

Duran Duran's most recent record, Paper Gods, is their 14th full-length album and the celebrated band's highest-charting release in 22 years. Produced by the Grammy Award-winning Mark Ronson and Nile Rodgers, alongside Mr Hudson and Josh Blair, Paper Gods features collaborations with Janelle Monáe, John Frusciante, Kiesza, Jonas Bjerre, and Lindsay Lohan. 2017 will see the band continuing their world tour in support of Paper Gods.
