LAS VEGAS

MGM MIRAGE (NYSE: MGM) announced today that it has closed on its previously announced private offering of $750 million principal amount of 13% Senior Secured Notes due November 2013 at a price of 93.132%. The notes rank as general senior obligations of MGM MIRAGE, are guaranteed by substantially all of MGM MIRAGE subsidiaries, and have a first priority security interest in the Company's New York -- New York Hotel & Casino. The Company received approximately $688 million in net proceeds which will be used to reduce the outstanding borrowings under the Company's existing revolving credit facility and for general corporate purposes. With the application of these proceeds, the Company currently has approximately $1.9 billion of availability under its revolving credit facility.

The notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state securities laws, and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offering would be unlawful.
