LAS VEGAS

MGM MIRAGE (NYSE: MGM) today announced that William A. "Bill" Bible has accepted an invitation to join the Company's Board of Directors. He was elected to his new post by the Board during a meeting on March 8, 2010.

"We are honored to welcome Bill Bible as the newest member of our Board of Directors," said James J. Murren, MGM MIRAGE Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Bill's wealth of expertise and familiarity with a wide range of financial and regulatory matters in both hospitality and gaming will serve as a tremendous asset to our Company."

Mr. Bible currently serves as the President of the Nevada Resort Association, the advocacy voice for Nevada's gaming and resort industry. Mr. Bible will tender his resignation to the Nevada Resort Association to be effective before the required gaming regulatory approvals or waivers are granted to avoid any conflicts inherent with concurrent service.

From 1988 - 1998, he served as the Chairman of the Nevada State Gaming Control Board.

His broad tenure as a state official includes his experience as Director of Nevada's Administration Department under Gov. Richard Bryan (1983-1988); Nevada Assembly Fiscal Analyst and Director of the Division of Fiscal Analysis of the Legislative Counsel Bureau (1977-1983); and Nevada Deputy Budget Administrator (1973-1977) and Nevada Chief Assistant Budget Administrator (1971-1973) under Gov. Mike O'Callaghan.

Mr. Bible graduated from Stanford University in 1967 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History with a minor in Political Science, followed by a Masters Degree in Business Administration in 1971 from the University of Nevada, Reno. His Masters program emphasized capital budgeting, resource allocation, portfolio management and general financial management.
