4/25/2006

PRNewswire

Company Also to Host Diversity Expo to Help Drive Business to Minority, Women and Disadvantaged Businesses

WHAT: MGM MIRAGE will release the 2005 results of the company's Diversity Initiative focusing on advancements in the areas of human resources/employment, purchasing, construction and philanthropy.

WHEN: Wednesday, May 10, 2006

WHO: J. Terrence Lanni, Chairman and CEO, MGM MIRAGE

BACKGROUND: In May 2000, MGM MIRAGE voluntarily launched the gaming industry's first Diversity Initiative, making groundbreaking efforts in diversity across all business areas: human resources, construction, purchasing, philanthropy, and corporate governance. The company will announce plans to build upon its foundation of diversity as well as further integrate diversity into its business operations.

Also included in the day's program will be a Diversity Expo, where over 500 vendors will have the unique opportunity to meet the company's properties and corporate units including Construction, Corporate Retail and Corporate Purchasing. Executives from each of MGM MIRAGE's 23 properties and Project CityCenter will be on hand to meet with business owners to help them better understand how to do business with the gaming company.
