Innovative Clean Limousine Fleet figures into Ultimate Automotive Experience

Las Vegas, NV Oct.17, 2012 – MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) and ARIA Resort & Casino at CityCenter have joined with MotorWeek TV, television's longest-running automotive series, for a major sweepstakes to kick off its season 32 in fall 2012.

The grand prize is a trip for two to Las Vegas to enjoy the Ultimate Automotive Experience, highlighted by a two-night stay at ARIA in early December 2012, and an exotic car drive through Red Rock Canyon in Las Vegas.

"This partnership with MotorWeek TV is a tremendous opportunity for us to showcase ARIA to a terrific audience. We'll start the visit by picking up the winners in one of our innovative CNG-fueled limousines," said Bill McBeath, President & CEO of CityCenter. In keeping with ARIA's commitment to sustainability, the resort's fleet of 26 CNG limousines represents the first-ever fleet of limousines powered by compressed natural gas, one of the cleanest burning alternative fuels available.

Cindy Ortega, Senior Vice President and Chief Sustainability Officer for MGM Resorts International, said, "MGM Resorts is a leader in environmental sustainability and its CityCenter project is the largest LEED Gold certified hotel, convention center and mixed use facility in the world."
