

MGM Resorts International Named Among Nation's Top Companies for Diversity by DiversityInc

4/27/2016

Recognized for the eleventh year, the company is ranked No. 5 on the "Top 10 Regional Companies" list LAS VEGAS, April 27, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) is ranked 5th on the "Top 10 Regional Companies" list for diversity best practices, according to DiversityInc, one of the nation's leading sources on workplace diversity management.

2016 marks the eleventh consecutive year MGM Resorts has been recognized for its Diversity and Inclusion Initiative by DiversityInc, which ranks companies based on the results of an annual survey.

"It's clear that corporate America understands how diversity and inclusion strengthens everything from recruiting and retention to overall business success," said Luke Visconti, DiversityInc's Founder and CEO. "We saw more than 1,000 companies submitting for contention on the list. It's a sign of their commitment and dedication to diversity management."

DiversityInc's annual survey – tracking the nation's top companies when it comes to hiring, retaining and promoting women, minorities, people with disabilities, LGBT and veterans – is one of the most rigorous, data-driven surveys of its kind, gauging detailed demographics based on race/ethnicity and gender at some of the largest U.S. employers.

Companies with more than 1,000 U.S.-based employees are eligible to enter, and there is no cost to compete. Each company's rank is based on an objective analysis of 183 separate factors, based on data from a 300-question survey. The four equally weighted areas of measurement are Talent Pipeline, Equitable Talent Development, CEO/Leadership Commitment and Supplier Diversity.

"Diversity is unquestionably the defining anchor of the 21st century global economy. At MGM Resorts, we are striving through our inclusion practices to leverage the talents of our highly diverse workforce for greater contributions to our company's success," said Phyllis A. James, Executive Vice President and Chief Diversity Officer of MGM Resorts

International. "This is a long-term, perpetual journey, and we are grateful to be recognized by DiversityInc for the progress we continue to make."

The MGM Resorts Diversity and Inclusion Initiative was voluntarily launched in 2000 – the first in the gaming, hospitality and entertainment industry – and is a critical pillar of the company's enterprise-wide social responsibility platform that includes environmental sustainability and community engagement programs. Highlights from the Diversity and Inclusion Initiative include:

- Approximately 66 percent of the company's employees are minorities. About 43 percent of employees in MGM Resorts' management ranks are women, and minorities comprise 42 percent of MGM Resorts' management ranks.
- In 2015, MGM Resorts spent a total of more than $323 million in tier-1 procurement and construction spend with minority-owned, women-owned, veteran-owned and disadvantaged enterprises, as well as businesses owned by disabled and lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender (LGBT) individuals.
- In 2015, more than 72 percent of MGM Resorts' philanthropic contributions to nonprofit organizations served diverse clientele, based on reports provided by agency recipients.
- The MGM Resorts Foundation is hosting its tenth annual Women's Leadership Conference at MGM Grand Conference Center on August 8-9, 2016. Presented to a sold-out audience of more than 1,000 women last year, the two-day professional development conference will feature nationally recognized speakers, forums for small-group dialogue and networking opportunities.
