

MGM Resorts International Ranks In Top 50 Most Admired Employers For Business College Students

5/14/2013

Universum 2013 rankings released in Businessweek

LAS VEGAS, May 14, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Business college students rank MGM Resorts International (NYSE:MGM) among their most admired employers, according to Universum's newly released survey of nearly 66,000 students. In its debut on the list, MGM Resorts landed at No. 40, making it the only integrated resort and only Nevada-based company to rank in the top 100.

"We're pleased that our focus on being an employer of choice as a leading entertainment and hospitality company that provides a spectrum of career paths, is recognized by the next generation of employee and business leaders. We are proud of the success of our Management Associate and Hospitality Internship Programs that for more than 20 years have attracted top students from Universities across the country. Many of our top leaders are graduates of these important programs," said Jim Murren, Chairman & CEO of MGM Resorts International.

The results were announced at The Employer Branding Conference, an annual event held for top executives in Recruitment and Talent Attraction, and reported in the May 9, 2013, edition of Businessweek.
