MGM Resorts International's M life Brings Member Rewards to Empire City Casino

6/24/2014

LAS VEGAS (June 24, 2014) — MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) has announced a strategic relationship with Empire City Casino in New York, joining a network of M life partners including Southwest Airlines, Royal Caribbean International, Hyatt and Avis Budget Group. The new relationship provides increased value for members of MGM Resorts' premier loyalty rewards program, M life, as well as for members of Empire Club.

Members of Empire City Casino's Empire Club will receive personalized offers and perks at MGM Resorts' world-class destinations, such as special room rates, complimentary show tickets and casino FREEPLAY®, while M life members will receive exclusive offers at Empire City Casino.

As a result of the new partnership, each company's reach now will extend into markets where they have not previously had a presence. Participating M life resorts are located in Las Vegas, Detroit and Mississippi.

"M life is differentiated from other rewards programs by providing access to MGM Resorts' unparalleled destinations on the iconic Las Vegas Strip and beyond," said Lance Evans, vice president of Marketing Partnerships for MGM Resorts International. "As we strive to deliver maximum value for our loyal guests, regional casino partnerships make for an ideal addition to the program. We're excited to embark on this new relationship with Empire City, extending M life's reach."

Ryan Murphy, vice president of Marketing for Empire City Casino, said, “Empire City strives to provide our guests with unparalleled gaming and entertainment with the added benefit of being close to home. This new partnership with MGM Resorts will expand the benefits of Empire Club membership, providing a direct connection between our guests’ Las Vegas and New York experiences. This is a very exciting time for our Empire Club members.”
