"We're thrilled to be in Las Vegas. I don't think we ever imagined this early on in our relatively new business we would have, not only a first, but a second home with the MGM family," said Parker. "And it's particularly exciting to be at Bellagio. I don't think we even realized how suitable a home it would be for us. This idea of a party for your foot really makes sense in Vegas."

Celebrating Parker's belief that color is the new neutral, shoe-lovers have the opportunity to select from all the vibrant shades of her signature "Fawn" heel, along with a bevy of chic flats, sexy sandals and stylish pumps. The Las Vegas location's stunning Bellagio Blue hue is featured in select styles, including Tartt, Serpentine, Rampling, Carrie and Minnie silhouettes. American-made SJP LBD, the brand's little black dress, is available in-store along with handbags, accessories and scented candles.

Randy Morton, president and COO of Bellagio, said, "Building this partnership with Ms. Parker has been an incredible experience and further elevates Bellagio's luxury retail offerings. We've worked closely to create a boutique that reflects her brand's style, sophistication and panache. This is sure to be a can't-miss destination for our guests."

The boutique, located in the Promenade retail corridor, is open daily from 10 a.m. – 10 p.m. and can be reached at 702-693-7921. Accessories and handbags range from $30 to $695, shoes start at $240 and the SJP LBD collection is available starting at $395.

About SJP by Sarah Jessica Parker

SJP was founded in February 2014 by Sarah Jessica Parker and partner George Malkemus III. The accessories collection stems from Sarah Jessica's love for the single sole and vivid memories of New York City fashion in the latter part of the 70s. The collection showcases the brand's theme of colors acting as neutrals and encourages women to take risks and break away from fashion rules they imagine.
