Statement of MGM Resorts International on the U.S. Supreme Court decision to overturn PASPA in Murphy v NCAA

5/14/2018

LAS VEGAS, May 14, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- MGM Resorts International (NYSE: MGM) released the following statement following the United Supreme Court ruling striking down the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act (PASPA):

"MGM Resorts International applauds the Court's decision to allow states the opportunity to protect consumers and benefit the public by regulating and taxing sports betting.

"We look forward to working with legislators and policy makers to achieve a regulatory outcome that benefits states and consumers alike while ensuring the integrity of sports.

"Having spent decades building trust with regulators, successfully operating sports books in Nevada, and hosting the world's leading sporting events, MGM Resorts International is extremely well positioned for a post-PASPA environment."
