CBRE Group, Inc. Named a World's Most Admired Company by Fortune Magazine for Sixth Consecutive Year

1/22/2018

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 22, 2018-- CBRE Group, Inc. (NYSE:CBG) today announced that Fortune magazine has named the company a World's Most Admired Company in the real estate industry for the sixth consecutive year.

Fortune rates companies on nine attributes related to corporate performance. In 2018, CBRE was ranked second overall in the real estate sector (behind only Host Hotels & Resorts) and was among the top three companies on all nine attributes, including global competitiveness, people management, financial strength and long-term investment.

"Our continued recognition as a Fortune Most Admired Company reflects our people's deep commitment to excellence and producing great outcomes for our clients every day. We are very proud of their accomplishments," said Bob Sulentic, president and chief executive officer of CBRE.

Drawing from a base of some 1,500 companies, Fortune evaluated 680 companies from 29 countries in determining the Most Admired Companies. Fortune surveys board directors, executives and financial analysts to determine the rankings.
