Forbes Names CBRE One of America's Best Employers

4/18/2019

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CBRE is among America's Best Large Employers according to Forbes magazine.

America's Best Employers were selected based on an independent survey of over 50,000 employees working for companies with at least 1,000 people employed in their U.S. locations. Employees were asked to evaluate their own employers as well as other companies in their industries.

"This recognition is a testament to our talented employees and our strong culture of inclusiveness," said Darcy Mackay, Chief Human Resources Officer at CBRE. "We are honored to be included on the list of such prestigious organizations."

Earlier this year CBRE was included on the 2019 America's Best Employers for Diversity list by Forbes and was the top real estate company on Fortune's World's Most Admired Companies list. CBRE was also named one of the 2019 World's Most Ethical Companies® for the sixth year in a row.
