Reginald Gilyard Joins CBRE Group, Inc. Board of Directors

11/19/2018

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CBRE Group, Inc. (NYSE:CBRE) today announced that Reginald H. Gilyard has joined the company's Board of Directors.

Mr. Gilyard is an accomplished business and financial advisor with nearly 30 years of leadership in corporate, academic and military organizations. He is a Senior Advisor with The Boston Consulting Group (BCG) and has developed and implemented strategies for Fortune 500 companies, educational institutions, and foundations. Most recently, Mr. Gilyard served as Dean of the Argyros School of Business and Economics at Chapman University from 2012 to 2017. Prior to Chapman, Mr. Gilyard was a Partner and Managing Director with BCG, where he led strategy, M&A and business transformation initiatives for large corporations, from 1996 to 2012. He served nine years in the U.S. Air Force and three years in the U.S. Air Force Reserves, rising to Major in the Reserves.

Mr. Gilyard serves on the Board of Directors of First American Financial Corporation (NYSE: FAF) and Realty Income Corporation (NYSE: O).

"Reggie is a great addition to our Board," said Brandon B. Boze, CBRE's Board Chair. "We will benefit greatly from the financial acumen, strategic insight and wide-ranging experience he brings to CBRE. We look forward to working with Reggie to advance CBRE's strategy and create value for all of the company's stakeholders."

"CBRE is the clear leader in its sector," Mr. Gilyard said. "I look forward to working with my new colleagues to help the company build on its market leadership and drive successful outcomes for clients, employees and shareholders."

Mr. Gilyard holds a B.S. degree from the U.S. Air Force Academy, M.S. from the Air Force Institute of Technology and M.B.A. from Harvard Business School. He is the Board Chair of Pacific Charter School Development, which has built more than 60 schools serving low income families in urban centers across the country.
