1Q Revenues of MxP 195Bn

América Móvil Consolidated Results

Economic activity continued to improve marginally in much of the developed world during the first quarter of the year, whereas in many developing countries, particularly those more dependent on commodity prices — and in particular those with trade links to China — it decelerated somewhat. In Mexico the economy appears to be making a comeback, continuing with the improved trends that began to take form during the fourth quarter.

Our first quarter revenues were up 1.3% year-on-year to 195.4 billion pesos. The volatility of exchange rates ended up understating the strength of the underlying revenue dynamism of our various operations. At constant exchange rates service revenues posted their second best performance in the last five quarters, jumping to 6.4% from 5.4% in the prior quarter. Wireless voice and fixed data services were the segments whose growth accelerated in the quarter.

1Q14 Service Revenues

Highlights	Stable growth in South American block	The South American block continued very much alongside its past growth trend, with both Central-America/Caribbean and the U.S. losing some dynamism. In Mexico service revenue growth reverted a 0.6% revenue decline in the fourth quarter posting instead a 2.0% service revenue increase. A year before, in the first quarter of 2013, Mexico's service revenues were falling 1.6% year-on-year.
Relevant Events
Subscribers	EBITDA of MxP 65Bn	At 64.9 billion pesos, first quarter EBITDA was up 1.7% in peso terms. As with revenues, the currency volatility suggests a more subdued improvement than is the case at constant exchange rates: EBITDA jumped 6.7% year-on-year, up from 5.7% in the fourth quarter. By this measure EBITDA had, in the first quarter, its best showing in the last five quarters. The above was the case even in spite of the company's push into postpaid, a segment that typically requires higher subsidies and even more so where smartphones are concerned. Our postpaid base increased 9.0% year-on-year – vs. 2.6% for prepaid – and the average cost per device soared 7.4% at constant exchange rates.
América Móvil Consolidated
Mexican Operations	Fx gains	Our operating profits of 38.7 billion pesos were partly offset by a comprehensive financing cost of 8.3 billion pesos that represented, for the most part, net interest payments on our debt. A year before we registered a comprehensive financing income of 1.4 billion pesos that had been brought about by sizable foreign exchange gains in the amount of 17.4 billion pesos.

102M Accesses

Total accesses reached 102.3 million at the end of the quarter; 6.6% more than a year before. On the wireless segment, we ended March with 68.7 million subscribers, with our subscriber base rising 3.7% year-on-year on the back of an 8.9% increase in the postpaid segment. We gained 289 thousand postpaid subscribers in the period and disconnected 242 thousand prepaid clients that were not meeting our consumption requirements. On the fixed division, PayTV led the way in terms of growth. PayTV clients were up 15.5% after adding 432 thousand new PayTV units in the first quarter whereas broadband accesses rose 14.8%.

1Q Revenues up 8.5% YoY

Our first quarter revenues expanded 8.5% from the year-earlier quarter to 8.6 billion reais. Wireless service revenues increased 3.8% as data revenues climbed 15.0%. Voice revenues were flat in spite of a 25% cut in interconnection rates effective in February; altogether the price per minute of voice came down 5.3%.

PayTV revenues +21% YoY

Fixed line revenues rose 11.0% compared with the precedent year. The most important component, PayTV revenues—representing around 43% of the total—posted an increase of 20.9% year-over-year. Broadband revenues were even more dynamic, expanding 22.4%.

EBITDA margin at 26.1%, +1.5p.p

The quarter's EBITDA of 2.2 billion reais was 15.4% above the year-earlier quarter. The margin for the period was 26.1% of revenues, 1.5 percentage points greater than a year before. The improvements in profitability resulted from further integration of our operations and the reduction of costs associated with a decline in leased lines and in network maintenance costs.

Postpaid sub base + 12.5%

We ended March with 5.9 million wireless subscribers after disconnections of 119 thousand clients in the first quarter stemming from a clean-up of our prepaid client base. In the postpaid segment we had 41 thousand net subscriber gains, 35.4% more than in the first quarter of 2013. In the fixed line platform, RGUs totaled 1.2 million; they were up 7.2% on an annual basis.

75% cut in MTRs

Revenues declined 1.4% on an annual basis to 182.2 billion Chilean pesos as a result of a reduction in wireless service revenues of 5.3%. The drop in revenues is entirely linked to a 75% cut in interconnection rates that became effective in January – with its respective reduction in interconnection costs of the same magnitude – and which took our voice revenues down by 17.3%. Data revenues, however, increased 33% year-over-year. Wire-line revenues, 59.4 billion Chilean pesos, rose 13.3% over the year buoyed by the growth of broadband and PayTV services.

1Q EBITDA margin at 6.1%

EBITDA of 11.2 billion Chilean pesos increased 64.7% annually and was equivalent to 6.1% of revenues. In the previous quarter EBITDA had fallen 28.3% from the year before.

We had a positive balance from Mobile Number Portability in the first quarter.
