

Notice of Amendment to Alpha and Omega Semiconductor Limited's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

On November 12, 2020, the Board of Directors of Alpha and Omega Semiconductor Limited (“AOS”) approved certain amendments to AOS’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (as amended, the “Code”).

The amendments include, but are not limited to, (i) additional provisions addressing compliance with bribery and anti-corruption laws; (ii) additional provisions prohibiting discrimination or harassment against any person, (iii) a zero tolerance policy for retaliation, and (iv) the addition of reporting violation procedures consistent with AOS’s Whistleblower Policy.

The foregoing description of the amendment is a summary and qualified in its entirety by a copy of the Code, a copy of which is posted with this notice.

Posted November 16, 2020