

Hudson Pacific Properties Appoints Vice President of Sustainability and Social Impact

Former PwC leader Natalie Teear will spearhead innovative environmental and social programs throughout the company's portfolio and markets

LOS ANGELES (July 25, 2019)—Hudson Pacific Properties, Inc. (NYSE: HPP) announced today the hiring of Natalie Teear as the company's Vice President, Sustainability and Social Impact. In her role, Teear will work with Hudson Pacific's leadership to further expand the company's Corporate Responsibility platform, focusing on the adoption of real estate solutions and cross-sector partnerships that create business value and contribute to sustainable, equitable, healthy and diverse communities.

Victor Coleman, Chairman and CEO of Hudson Pacific, said: "We are thrilled to welcome Natalie to the Hudson Pacific team. Her hiring exemplifies our company's commitment to build significantly upon our ESG initiatives and accomplishments to date. Natalie's insight and years of experience will be instrumental as we continue to ensure our business is both mindful of and positively impacts the biggest social and environmental challenges facing our industry and communities today."

Tear joins Hudson Pacific with 12 years of sustainability and social impact experience. Previously, she held a leadership role at PwC on the Sustainability Services team, where she counseled businesses on addressing issues related to climate change, housing insecurity and homelessness, hunger and malnutrition, water scarcity, deforestation and human rights. Prior to PwC, Teear was an environmental consultant with URS Corporation (now AECOM), focused on large water infrastructure projects in the West Coast and Pacific territories. She earned a Master of Environmental Management degree from Yale University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Dartmouth College.

Tear's hiring comes on the heels of Hudson Pacific releasing its inaugural Corporate Responsibility Report, which highlighted the company's ESG initiatives and achievements for the 2018 calendar year. Additional information is available in the Responsibility section of the company's website, www.HudsonPacificProperties.com.
