LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL WITH RESPECT TO THE
COMMON SHARES OF MAXAR TECHNOLOGIES LTD.

This Letter of Transmittal is for use by registered holders (“Maxar Canada Shareholders”) of common shares (the “Maxar Canada Shares”) in the capital of Maxar Technologies Ltd. (“Maxar Canada”) in connection with the proposed arrangement (the “Arrangement”) under Section 288 of the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) providing for, among other things, the exchange of each existing Maxar Canada Share for one share of common stock of a newly-incorporated parent entity to be formed under the laws of the State of Delaware in the United States of America, Maxar Technologies Inc. (“Maxar U.S.”). Maxar Canada entered into an arrangement agreement with 1182060 B.C. Unlimited Liability Company (“AcquisitionCo”) dated October 8, 2018 (the “Arrangement Agreement”), in regards to the Arrangement.

This Letter of Transmittal is for use by registered Maxar Canada Shareholders only and is not to be used by beneficial (non-registered) Maxar Canada Shareholders. A significant number of Maxar Canada Shareholders are beneficial Maxar Canada Shareholders because the Maxar Canada Shares they beneficially own are not registered in their names but instead registered in the name of an intermediary (an “Intermediary”), such as a broker, investment dealer, bank or trust company, or in the name of a depository such as CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc. in which the Intermediary is a participant. If you are a beneficial Maxar Canada Shareholder, you should contact your Intermediary if you have questions regarding this process and carefully follow the instructions from the Intermediary that holds Maxar Canada Shares on your behalf in order to deposit your Maxar Canada Shares. You should not complete this Letter of Transmittal unless specifically instructed to do so by your Intermediary.

In order for registered Maxar Canada Shareholders to receive the Consideration for their Maxar Canada Shares, registered Maxar Canada Shareholders are required to deposit the certificates representing the Maxar Canada Shares held by them (if any) with the Depository. This Letter of Transmittal, properly completed and duly executed, together with all other required documents, including the attached form of proxy, must accompany all certificates representing Maxar Canada Shares (if any) deposited pursuant to the Arrangement.

To properly complete this Letter of Transmittal, registered Maxar Canada Shareholders must complete: (i) Step 1 - with the information regarding their Maxar Canada Shares; (ii) Step 2 - with respect to their delivery or pick-up instructions; (iii) Step 3 - regarding whether the Maxar Canada Shareholder is a U.S. Maxar Shareholder or is acting on behalf of a U.S. Maxar Shareholder; and (iv) Step 4 – acknowledging the authorizations and duly executing this Letter of Transmittal. Please read the instructions below in completing this Letter of Transmittal and any questions and requests for assistance may be directed to the Depository at the telephone numbers, email address and locations set forth on the backpage of this Letter of Transmittal.

Please note that the delivery of this Letter of Transmittal does not constitute a vote FOR the Arrangement Resolution or any other matters to be considered at the Meeting. To exercise your right to vote at the Meeting, you must attend the Meeting in person or complete and return the form of proxy that accompanied the Circular to Maxar Canada's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc., at its Toronto office (100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1) no later than 11:00 a.m. (Mountain Time) on November 14, 2018 (or not less than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays, prior to the commencement of the reconvened Meeting if the Meeting is adjourned or postponed).

Maxar Canada and AcquisitionCo will implement the Arrangement when all of the conditions to closing have been satisfied and/or waived. The Arrangement is subject to a number of closing conditions, some of which are beyond Maxar Canada's and/or AcquisitionCo's control, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Arrangement will be completed, nor can the exact timing of the implementation of the Arrangement be predicted with certainty. The Arrangement is subject to, among other things, the approval of Maxar Canada Securityholders at a special meeting of Maxar Canada Securityholders scheduled to be held on November 16, 2018 (as the same may be postponed or adjourned, the "Meeting") and, if approved, the Arrangement is currently expected to be completed on or about January 1, 2019.

Reference is made to the Notice of Special Meeting of Maxar Canada Securityholders and the Management Information Circular (the "Circular"), each of which is dated October 12, 2018. Maxar Canada Securityholders are strongly urged to read the Circular. The Circular and this Letter of Transmittal are available on Maxar Canada's website at www.maxar.com as well as under its profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on EDGAR at www.sec.gov. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Letter of Transmittal have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Circular.

If the Arrangement is not completed and the Arrangement Agreement is terminated, the Depositary will return to Maxar Canada Shareholders the certificate(s) enclosed with their Letters of Transmittal in accordance with the instructions provided in the Letters of Transmittal and Maxar Canada Shareholders will not be entitled to receive any Consideration for their Maxar Canada Shares.

General Information

Consideration

Under the Arrangement, each Maxar Canada Shareholder will be entitled to receive one Maxar U.S. Share in exchange for each Maxar Canada Share held (the "Consideration").

Should a Letter of Transmittal with all portions validly completed, together with, as applicable, accompanying certificate(s) representing Maxar Canada Shares or any other documents as the Depositary may reasonably require, be received by the Depositary on or after the Effective Date, but on or before the day that is three years less one day from the Effective Date, the relevant Maxar Canada Shareholder will be entitled to receive, for each Maxar Canada Share the Consideration to which the holder thereof is entitled in lieu of such certificate as contemplated by Section 2.3 and Section 4.1 of the Plan of Arrangement.

All questions as to validity, form, eligibility (including timely receipt) and acceptance of any Maxar Canada Shares deposited pursuant to the Arrangement will be determined by Maxar Canada in its sole discretion. Maxar Canada reserves the right to reject any and all deposits which it determines not to be in proper form or which may be unlawful for it to accept under the laws of any jurisdiction. Maxar Canada reserves the right, if it so elects in its absolute discretion, to instruct the Depositary to waive any defect or irregularity contained in any Letter of Transmittal received by the Depositary. There will be no obligation on Maxar Canada, the Depositary or any other person to give notice of any defect or irregularity in any deposit and no liability will be incurred by any of them for failure to give such notice.

Cancellation of Rights

Certificates representing Maxar Canada Shares that are not forwarded to the Depositary together with a properly completed and signed Letter of Transmittal and all other required documents on or before the day that is three years less one day from the Effective Date will (i) cease to represent a claim by, or interest of, any former Maxar Canada Shareholder of any kind or nature against or in Maxar Canada, AcquisitionCo, Amalco or Maxar U.S. and (ii) be deemed to have been surrendered to Maxar U.S. for cancellation.

The method used to deliver this Letter of Transmittal and any accompanying certificates/DRS Advice representing Maxar Canada Shares is at the option and risk of the Maxar Canada Shareholder surrendering them. Delivery will be deemed effective only when such documents are actually received. Maxar Canada recommends that the necessary documentation be hand delivered to the Depositary at the address specified on the back page of this Letter of Transmittal, and a receipt obtained therefor; otherwise the use of registered mail with return receipt requested, and with proper insurance obtained, is recommended. Maxar Canada Shareholders whose Maxar Canada Shares are registered in the name of an Intermediary should contact that Intermediary for assistance in depositing those Maxar Canada Shares. If any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented one or more outstanding Maxar Canada Shares that were transferred pursuant to Section 2.3 of the Plan of Arrangement shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, Maxar U.S. or the Depository will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the Consideration that such holder is entitled to receive in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate. When authorizing such Consideration in exchange for any lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the Person to whom such Consideration is to be delivered shall, as a condition precedent to the delivery of such Consideration, give a bond satisfactory to AcquisitionCo, Amalco, Maxar U.S. and the Depository (each acting reasonably) in such sum as AcquisitionCo, Amalco or Maxar U.S. may direct (acting reasonably), or otherwise indemnify AcquisitionCo, Amalco and Maxar U.S. in a manner satisfactory to AcquisitionCo, Amalco and Maxar U.S., each acting reasonably, against any claim that may be made against AcquisitionCo, Maxar Canada, Amalco and Maxar U.S. with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

9. U.S. Maxar Shareholders and Backup Withholding

ALL REGISTERED MAXAR CANADA SHAREHOLDERS MUST COMPLETE STEP 3. THE DEPOSITARY WILL NOT DISTRIBUTE ANY CONSIDERATION TO MAXAR CANADA SHAREHOLDERS UNTIL THE INFORMATION REQUIRED BY STEP 3 IS PROVIDED.

THE REMAINDER OF THIS INSTRUCTION IS ONLY APPLICABLE TO U.S. MAXAR SHAREHOLDERS AS DEFINED IN STEP 3 (GENERALLY, A MAXAR CANADA SHAREHOLDER THAT IS EITHER (A) A PERSON WHOSE ADDRESS IS LOCATED IN THE UNITED STATES, OR A PERSON WHO IS PROVIDING AN ADDRESS IN THE DELIVERY INSTRUCTIONS BOX THAT IS LOCATED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR (B) IS A U.S. PERSON (AS DEFINED BELOW)).

Definition of U.S. Person

You are a "U.S. Person" for U.S. federal tax purposes if you are (A) an individual who is a citizen or a resident of the United States (including a U.S. resident alien), (B) a corporation, company or association or partnership created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (C) an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or (D) a trust if a U.S. court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. Persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust (or certain electing trusts).

U.S. Maxar Shareholders that are U.S. Persons

To prevent backup withholding on any Consideration paid to a U.S. Maxar Shareholder (or any person acting on behalf of a U.S. Maxar Shareholder) that is a U.S. Person, such holder must provide his, her or its correct U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) (or the TIN of the person on whose behalf you are acting), by completing the enclosed IRS Form W-9. In general, an individual's TIN is his or her social security number (SSN) and an entity's TIN is its employee identification number (EIN).

Certain U.S. Persons who are exempt recipients (including, among others, corporations) are not subject to backup withholding requirements. To prevent possible erroneous backup withholding in respect of any Consideration paid pursuant to the Arrangement, an exempt recipient that is a U.S. Person must properly complete and return the IRS Form W-9 attached hereto.

If Maxar Canada Shares are held in more than one name or are not in the name of the actual owner, consult the General Instructions to the IRS Form W-9 attached hereto.

If a U.S. Maxar Shareholder does not have a TIN, such holder should consult the General Instructions to IRS Form W-9 attached hereto for instructions on applying for a TIN. In such case, the Depository may withhold from any Consideration paid to such holder prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Depository, and such amounts may be paid over to the IRS.

Failure to provide a properly completed and signed IRS Form W-9 prior to the Effective Date may subject such U.S. Maxar Shareholder to backup withholding at the applicable rate, currently 24%, on any Consideration that such U.S. Maxar Shareholder is entitled to receive. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Generally, any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against such holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. The Depository cannot refund amounts withheld by reason of backup withholding.

U.S. Maxar Shareholders that are not U.S. Persons

To prevent backup withholding on any Consideration paid to a U.S. Maxar Shareholder (or any person acting on behalf of a U.S. Maxar Shareholder) that is not a U.S. Person, such holder must submit an appropriate and properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E or W-8ECI, or other applicable documentation, or otherwise establish an exemption. IRS Forms W-8 may be obtained from the IRS website (www.irs.gov).

Failure to provide a properly completed and signed applicable IRS Form W-8 prior to the Effective Date may subject such U.S. Maxar Shareholder to backup withholding at the applicable rate, currently 24%, on any Consideration that such U.S. Maxar Shareholder is entitled to receive. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Generally, any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against such holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. The Depository cannot refund amounts withheld by reason of backup withholding.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

Form W-9 (Rev. 11-2017)

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

a. Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note: ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

c. Partnership, LLC that is not a single-member LLC, C corporation, or S corporation. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

d. Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

e. Disregarded entity. For U.S. federal tax purposes, an entity that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner is treated as a "disregarded entity." See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2)(iii). Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the entity entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box on line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3.

IF the entity/person on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .

Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

² Circle the minor's name and furnish the minor's SSN.

³ You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or DBA name on the "Business name/disregarded entity" name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one), but the IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

⁴ List first and circle the name of the trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

Note: The grantor also must provide a Form W-9 to trustee of trust.

Note: If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.
