

MAXAR TECHNOLOGIES INC.
COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

(Effective as of January 1, 2019)
(Revised effective October 29, 2019)

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is to oversee the discharge of the responsibilities of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Maxar Technologies Inc. (the “Company”) relating to compensation of the Company’s executive officers and directors.

II. Composition

The Committee must consist of at least two directors, each of whom must satisfy the independence requirements of applicable securities laws and the applicable rules of any stock exchange upon which the Company’s securities are listed, except as otherwise permitted by the applicable securities laws or the rules of any applicable stock exchange, and meet all other eligibility requirements of applicable laws. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee may, in its sole discretion, retain or obtain advice from compensation consultants, legal counsel or other advisers (independent or otherwise), provided that, preceding any such retention or advice, the Committee must take into consideration all factors, including any applicable factors under applicable securities laws or the rules of any applicable stock exchange, relevant to the adviser’s independence from management. The Committee will be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any adviser it retains.

The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any adviser retained by the Committee.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, the Company's bylaws and applicable securities laws or the rules of any applicable stock exchange.

The Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisers engaged by the Committee. The Committee has authority to provide oversight in respect of the retirement and health and welfare programs of the Company and its subsidiaries.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities

1. CEO Compensation. The Committee will review and approve the corporate goals and objectives with respect to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The Committee will evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's performance in light of these goals and objectives and, based upon this evaluation (either alone or, if directed by the Board, in conjunction with a majority of the independent directors on the Board), will make recommendations to the Board regarding the Chief Executive Officer's compensation.

2. Other Executive Officer Compensation. The Committee will review and set or make recommendations to the Board regarding the compensation of the executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer.

3. Executive Officer Agreements. The Committee will review and approve, or recommend to the Board for approval, all agreements between the Company and any executive officer, including those dealing with retirement, termination of employment, change of control payments, retention bonuses and other special circumstances.

4. Incentive and Equity Compensation. The Committee will review and approve or make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's executive incentive compensation and equity-based plans, arrangements and awards, including acting as plan administrator.

5. Stock Ownership Policy. The Committee will oversee and recommend to the Board, from time to time, the stock ownership policy for executives and directors.

6. Succession Plans. The Committee will review and approve succession plans for executive officers of the Company, including career planning for potential successors and programs to develop management.

7. Compensation Discussion and Analysis. To the extent that the Company is required to include a "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" ("CD&A") or other executive compensation disclosure in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, annual proxy statement or other filings, the Committee will review and discuss with management the Company's CD&A and will consider whether it will recommend to the Board that the Company's CD&A be included in the appropriate filing.

8. Compensation Committee Report. The Committee will prepare the annual Compensation Committee Report.

9. Compensation Policies. On an annual basis, the Committee will review the Company's compensation policies and practices to identify inherent risks associated with compensation, to the extent compensation could potentially incentivize unnecessary or inappropriate risk-taking or short-term decision making.

10. Director Compensation. The Committee will review and make recommendations to the Board regarding director compensation.

11. Reports to the Board of Directors. The Committee must report regularly to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee.

12. Committee Self-Evaluation. The Committee must annually perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

13. Review of this Charter. The Committee must annually review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

V. Delegation of Duties

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee has the authority to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee or any officer of the Company.
